Foreign Aid Bill Awaits Final Action

Falls Billion Short Of Ike's Goal; Help For Tito Is Retained

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the big fights out of the way, the House today awaited a final vote Monday on a foreign aid bill more than a billion dollars smaller than President Eisenhower requested.

House leaders listed the roll call vote as the first order of business for Monday after the House Friday night tentatively approved a $3,800,000,000 program for bolstering free world countries against communism.

Leaders Rebuffed

The bill falls $1,100,000,000 short of Eisenhower's $4,900,000,000 request for the bookkeeping year starting July 1. The House rebuffed strong efforts by Eisenhower and House leaders of both parties to restore 600 million dollars of the cut. The measure sets an authorization ceiling. The actual money will be voted later in a separate bill.

The White House Friday signaled plans for a drive to get the money put back in the Senate.

In contrast to Thursday's lopsided defeat of a move to put back part of the deleted funds, the combined Republican - Democratic House leadership forces Friday won a series of victories. The biggest was defeat of a strong move to force a cutoff in all U.S. aid to Communist Yugoslavia.

By a 123-95 teller vote, the leaders succeeded in toning down an outright ban proposed by Rep. Edna F. Kelly (D-NY). Adopted 183-3, the revised amendment would allow continued U.S. assistance to Marshal Tito's government, provided the President finds it is in the interest of U.S. security and that Yugoslavia has not come under the thumb of the Kremlin.

15 Million for Yugoslavia

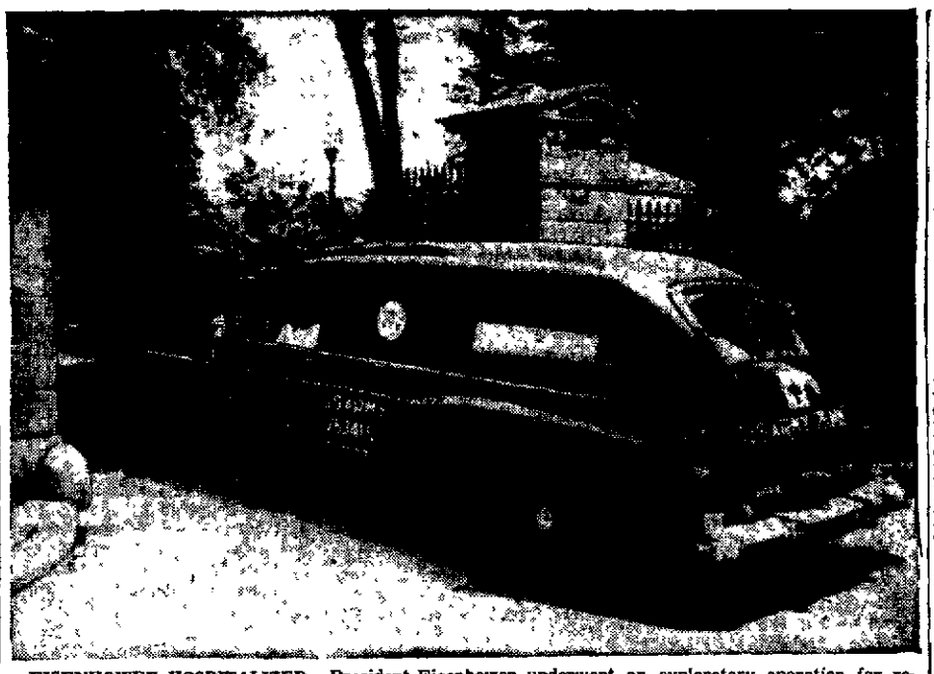
The voting left in the bill 15 million dollars in economic aid for Yugoslavia, plus a larger, secret amount of military assistance funds. Eisenhower originally sought 30 millions in economic help for Yugoslavia, but the House Foreign Affairs Committee cut the figure in half.

The action on the Kelly amendment also blunted moves to end U.S. aid to other countries deemed "neutralists" in the cold war. A proposal by Rep. Bentley (R-Mich) to knock out some 70 million dollars for India was defeated by a 62-28 standing vote.

The only amendment adopted aside from the toned-down Kelly amendment, was a proposal by Rep. Lawrence Smith (R-Wis) for a study of the technical aid program with a view to handling it separately from other parts of the aid program in the future.

Friday's votes technically are subject to roll call action Monday. But there seemed to be no concerted plan to revive any of the issues.

House leaders expected quite a number of votes against the whole bill Monday, but they seemed confident of final passage.



EISENHOWER HOSPITALIZED. President Eisenhower underwent an exploratory operation for removal of an obstruction of the intestine early today after being stricken by a digestive ailment Friday.

UPPER: An Army ambulance arrives at the White House to take President Eisenhower to Walter Reed Hospital. The President's doctors said his ailment is not "critical" and emphasized that it was not heart trouble.

LOWER: Deeply concerned, Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower and her son, Maj. John Eisenhower, arrive at the hospital to be with the President. Their limousine preceded the ambulance carrying President Eisenhower. Maj. Eisenhower arrived from his post at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

Condition Is Satisfactory, Doctors Say

President's Spirits, Morale High After Pre-Dawn Surgery

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower is recovering "most satisfactorily" from his emergency abdominal operation and White House press secretary James Hagerty said today he expects no interruption in the duties of the presidency.

At an 11:25 a.m. (EST) news conference Hagerty gave reporters the indication that a rapid recovery is expected.

Two hours earlier Hagerty had reported that the President's "spirits were good and his morale was high"—but declined to give medical details.

He said Eisenhower was sleeping.

Length of Stay Unknown

Hagerty told questioners he did not know how long the President would be hospitalized.

The 65-year-old President went under emergency surgery at 1:59 a. m. The four-man team of surgeons finished the operation one hour and 53 minutes later.

The President's doctors relieved what they called a non-cancerous intestinal obstruction that was "due to ileitis."

Hagerty said there is no change in plans "at this point" for the President to attend the conference of American presidents at Panama City on June 26 or his meeting with Prime Minister Nehru of India on July 7.

But the tiring secretary replied "I don't know" when asked whether there would be any change in plans for the President's scheduled meeting with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer of Germany next Wednesday.

Asked whether any plans have been made to turn the President's work load over to other officials, Hagerty said the next bills from Congress which will require his action do not fall due until midnight, June 15.

No Interruption

A reporter persisted: did this mean there would be no interruption in the official duties of the presidency?

"I don't anticipate any."

Hagerty told reporters that Eisenhower had awakened three or four times during the morning and spoken to Maj. Arthur Cohen. Cohen is a general surgeon attached to the staff of Walter Reed General Army Hospital where the emergency operation was performed by four doctors, with heart specialists standing by as a precautionary measure.

All reports have stressed that there had been no involvement of the President's heart. This has been significant in view of the coronary thrombosis which Eisenhower suffered last Sept. 24

Hagerty said the President was "conscious of pain" and the doctors expect this will be so for

Reds Building Up Strength, Dulles Warns

He Cautions Against Trying To Buy U.S. Security Too Cheaply

AMES, Iowa (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles said today Russia's rulers are making "a gigantic effort to build up their military establishment."

He cautioned the American people against seeking to buy security for the United States at "bargain counter prices."

Dulles' speech, prepared for Iowa State College commencement exercises, contained also an appeal obviously directed at Congress, which is now considering the foreign aid appropriations.

Dulles said it will be necessary to spend about 40 billion dollars a year on American armed forces and foreign military and economic aid so long as the danger of international communism persists.

He called that "peace insurance," and said the United States can afford 10 per cent of its gross national product for it "while at the same time raising our living standards."

Without mentioning Moscow's talk of reducing its armed forces, which he previously has discounted, Dulles said "the Soviet Union is spending, for military and foreign purposes hostile to us, about 20 per cent of the gross product of the Soviet Union."

Dulles' comments bore the advance endorsement of President Eisenhower, who mentioned the forthcoming speech at his Wednesday news conference and said it would deal with the whole question of "waging peace."

Reds' Plan Opposed

Rejection of Arms Reduction Is Seen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Administration officials predicted today a polite rejection of Russia's proposal for a "new approach" to disarmament, including a cutback in Russian and Western armed forces in Germany.

Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin made the proposal this week in a letter to President Eisenhower which the White House made public Friday night. Moscow radio also broadcast it.

Will Talk to Adenauer

Eisenhower, if he is well enough, and Secretary of State Dulles are expected to discuss the Bulganin maneuver with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer when he visits Washington next week. The United States will also consult with Britain and France on the move, officials indicated.

The outcome of these talks, however, was considered to be a foregone conclusion as far as the reply to Bulganin is concerned. Officials here said that what he has proposed on disarmament is a reduction of forces without any provision whatever for safeguards against violations—a point which the Western Powers have long insisted is of supreme importance.

In respect to Germany, officials said that the Bulganin proposal would simply result in withdrawal of Soviet forces from East Germany into Poland while America's six divisions in West Germany, lacking bases elsewhere in Europe, would have to be pulled all the way back across the Atlantic. Such a withdrawal by the United States, they said, would weaken the security of Western Europe.

Bulganin also sent letters this week to Adenauer, British Prime Minister Eden and French Premier Guy Mollet.

Others Get Letters

Bulganin said the work of a five nation U.N. subcommittee on disarmament, which last met in London this spring, actually "is retarding progress" toward a disarmament agreement. Therefore, he said, "it is difficult to expect the U.N. talks to lead to concrete results in the area of disarmament in the very near future."

What is needed in the present circumstances, Bulganin said, is a "new approach" to the disarmament.

Pay Increases For City Posts To Be Studied

Ordinances calling for pay raises for the safety-service director, the city engineer and his assistants will be considered Monday night by Marion City Council.

One ordinance proposes that the safety-service director's salary be increased to $6,000 a year, an $800 raise over his present salary. The safety-service director's salary was cut last year by council at the same time it revised the mayor's salary, raising it from $4,800 to $6,500 a year.

At the last council meeting, May 28, R. G. Haldeman, chairman of the finance committee, announced that Mayor Gale D. Ireland had requested the safety-service director's salary be raised to $6,100 but that his committee recommended that it remain unchanged.

The raises being proposed for the city engineer's department are to raise the engineer to $6,500 a year, his assistant to $6,000 a year and the draftsman to $350 a month. The raise for the engineer would be immediate but those for the assistant and draftsman would be steps, depending on length of service.

In other business Monday night, council will consider ordinances to make additional appropriations and transfer funds.

Council also will consider an ordinance to create two new clerk positions in the sewer service department and one calling for the trade in of five present police cruisers on the purchase of five new cars.

India Negotiating For Soviet Planes

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Official sources said today the Indian government is negotiating "actively" with Russia for the purchase of a fleet of Soviet Ilyushin-14 airliners for its nationalized internal airlines.

One report said the Russians were willing to furnish the transports at about 210,000 dollars each, which aviation sources here said was practically "a giveaway price."

Quake Shakes Chile

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—A strong earth tremor shook central Chile early today. Some cracked walls were reported in La Serena, 250 miles northwest of Santiago.

Train Hits Car In Fog Killing Area Resident

Mrs. Edith Carender Dies Instantly After Mishap Near Galion

BUCYRUS — A speeding Pennsylvania Railroad train crashed into a car on a Crawford County Road crossing this morning about 2:10 and killed a Bucyrus woman on her way home from work in Crestline.

State patrolmen from the Bucyrus post said the woman was Mrs. Edith Mae Carender, 40, who was employed at the Triangle Tavern in Crestline.

On Way Home

They said she was on her way home on Crawford County Road 35 at Galion Lake north of Galion. Patrolmen said she apparently was following another car in dense fog and could not see the crossing or the approaching train.

The train carried the car some distance, officials said, and Mrs. Carender was killed instantly. The car was demolished and had to be removed in sections. Traffic on the eastbound railroad tracks was tied up for about one and one-half hours while the debris was being removed.

Dr B. P. Mansfield, Crawford County coroner, said death was caused instantly by a fractured skull, multiple fractures and internal injuries.

The engineer of the train was identified as Thomas W. Forster of Toledo.

Funeral in Kenton

The body was first taken to the Beck Funeral Home in Crestline and was transferred to Kenton where the funeral will be held Monday afternoon.

She was born in Bowling Green, Ky., on June 3, 1916 to Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Carender. She lived in Kenton for seven years at the home of Rose Myers before moving to Bucyrus. There are no known survivors. She and her husband had been divorced.

Funeral services will be held

France Pours Fresh Troops Into Algeria

Twin Drives Speeded Against Opponents on East, West Frontiers

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP) — France threw fresh troops today into twin drives against Algerian Nationalists on the eastern and western frontiers of this North African territory.

In the east near the Moroccan border, the 12th and 19th Infantry and 4th Motorized Division rolled into the fourth day of a coastal mopup. Small ships slipped in along the Mediterranean shore and landed marines under fighter plane protection. The French said the first three days of Operation Zulu along a 100-mile front resulted in 71 rebels killed and more than 500 captured.

In the west, units of the 7th Motorized and 27th Alpine divisions bolstered by Foreign Legion and colonial troops routed a strong band of rebels. The French said 31 rebels were killed while their own casualties were one killed and four wounded.

Sixteen persons were killed in bomb throwing and shooting incidents in Algeria Friday.

Worst hit was Bone, easternmost large city in Algeria. There five bombs were thrown, one of them into a crowd of French officers seated on the outdoor terrace of the Hotel D'Orient. Three of them were injured and a number of passersby hurt.

Election Could Hinge on Ike's State of Health

Same Questions That Followed Last Illness Are Raised Nationally

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican presidential nomination—and possibly the outcome of the November election—may depend on how long President Eisenhower remains bedfast and how he feels.

An early-morning "exploratory operation" performed today by physicians attending Eisenhower for an intestinal ailment raised again many of the questions the Republicans faced after Eisenhower suffered a heart attack in Denver last Sept. 24.

Eisenhower has promised to tell the American people "instantly" any time he felt he was not physically up to the job of the presidency.

Already Eisenhower has 960 of the 1,323 Republican national convention votes listed for him, with 70 more held for him by favorite sons. He needs only 667 for renomination.

But if Eisenhower should bow out of the race, the scramble for the GOP nomination would be intense. The President, of course, could indicate his own choice of a Republican standard bearer and thus automatically push one aspirant to the fore.

But even a presidential designation of a favorite candidate would not necessarily settle the matter. For instance, few would expect Eisenhower to give the nod to Sen. Knowland of California, the Senate's GOP leader. Similarly, no one would expect Knowland to let the nomination go to any other party member without the strongest kind of effort to get it himself.

Kaganovich Out as Labor Chief

Last of Old Bolsheviks Gives Up Russian Post

MOSCOW (AP) — Deputy Premier Lazar Kaganovich, last of the old Bolsheviks to hold a top policy-making job in the Soviet Union, quit today as head of the key Soviet Labor and Wage Committee.

The 63-year-old Ukrainian who rose to prominence as a politburo organizer under Stalin, had long been considered the Soviet Union's ace labor trouble shooter. There was no immediate indication why he quit his job.

Follows Molotov

Only last February he announced before the Supreme Soviet a sweeping wage and incentive program for Soviet workers.

He resigned just eight days after another veteran Bolshevik, V. M. Molotov, gave up his long-time tenure as Soviet foreign minister.

Kaganovich, the only Jew among the present top Kremlin brass, apparently holds onto his post as firs' deputy premier, as does Molotov.

The Communist party organ Pravda announced Kaganovich's resignation in a terse, two-paragraph notice on a back page. It said he will be succeeded by Alexander Petrovich Volkov, chairman of the Soviet of the Union — a chamber of the Soviet Parliament —since 1954.

Volkov headed a Soviet delegation which recently visited the African Republic of Liberia to offer Soviet aid. The Monrovian government turned down the offer.

Kaganovich, who began as a cobbler's apprentice, was named last November to make the chief oration at Moscow's celebration of the Russian revolution. In his speech he hailed the Soviet Union's progress under communism, but reproved Soviet workers for not making greater strides.

Spoke Last February

His most recent public speech was made before the Supreme Soviet in February. At that time, he said the Soviet Union's labor and wages policy was "all tangled up." He promised to review wages and incentives to keep production moving.

Investors Watch Capital

Prices of Stock Tumble Downward After Illness

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market investors have a sharp eye on Washington today for a clue to future prices.

President Eisenhower's illness sent prices spinning downward Friday in the sharpest break since Oct. 10, 1955.

Rally at Close

A rally at the close improved prices greatly above their worst of the day but whether the upward trend would continue Monday was an open question.

"Much depends on Washington news," said Martin Gilbert, analyst for the big Wall Street firm of Bache & Co. "Washington will provide the cue on stock prices."

Stocks were hammered down in three sharp selling waves. Twenty minutes before the close a strong upsurge occurred.

The high-speed ticker tape fell behind four times. The biggest delay came around mid-day when the tape lagged five minutes behind floor transactions in the wake of news that Eisenhower was going to the hospital.

The Associated Press 60-stock average fell $3 to $177. This represented an estimated drop of 3½ billion dollars in the quoted value of securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange. The worst previous setback was $4.60 Oct. 10, the day of the third sharp reaction after Eisenhower's heart attack.

13 Billion in September

By comparison, the initial "heart attack" break on the first trading day after the President was stricken last Sept 24 represented an estimated loss of 13 billions in the quoted value of listed stocks.

By Friday's close, pivotal stocks had declined from around $1 to $3 a share. Earlier in the day, however, their losses had stretched to around $7 a share.

Santa Fe was down $3.50 a share at $154.50, American Telephone 87 cents at $179, Gulf Oil $3.50 a share at $113, U.S. Steel $1.75 at $53.50 and Du Pont $3.37 at $202.62.

Trading volume rose to 3,630,000 shares, the biggest session since Feb. 29 when 3,900,000 shares were traded on the day Eisenhower said he would run for re-election.

What Christ Does for Men

A Sermonette

By REV. ASHLEY BOOTH
Pastor of Central Christian Church

"As in Adam all die, so in Christ shall all be made alive."
1 Cor. 15:22.

Can you name at least one thing that Christ has done for you?

Have you overcome some bad habit such as an irascible temper or craving thirst? Did He get through to you in some crisis as when a loved one passed away? Did you discover that the greatest happiness comes not in elbowing your neighbor?

There have been many pictures of the last judgment, but the most vivid is that of a person standing before the judge of the universe and hearing him ask: "what has Christ done for you?" The answers would probably range from the most silly to plain ordinary. If the question is so important why postpone finding the answer. Just what is Christ's achievement in you? If nothing, why not? The burden lies on us as participants in a great faith to answer whether the scriptural observation applies to us: "you He has made alive."

IN TRYING TO break through the log-jam of spiritual problems which had accumulated in the church at Corinth, Paul wrote several letters. In the letter which we call 1 Corinthians the great apostle reminded the Christians of what Christ had done to them: "As in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive." Only a fine line separates mere existence from joyous living. We often get snarled in the red tape of responsibility and like children we respond to the claims of life, "do I have to?" We may become so wrapped up in our self-pity that we may gradually commit spiritual suicide.

The early Christians, strangely, did not have this same point of view. A. J. Gossip, noted Scottish preacher, observes: "We think of the enormous sacrifices of the early Christians; but what struck themselves was the immensity of their inheritance in Christ." The question is most relevant for our lives. Can we find that what He did for them is also available for us now?

EVERY AGE HAS had its symbol, and the sign of our times is two human hands being wrung in despair. Many people are like Atlas, carrying the burden of their lives and the world on their shoulders. Everyone seeks escape from life as a mere rat race. A few years ago Henry C. Link wrote the book "The Return to Religion." This may be the aftermath of a great war where a diet of cynicism and despair is not adequate. Oscar Wilde sums it this way:

We did not dare to breathe a prayer
Or give our anguish scope!
Something was dead in each of us,
And what was dead was hope.

We are again in the wake of a fermenting desire to get rid of the bad taste in our mouth, and we are concluding that religion is the answer.

TODAY'S REVIVAL of religion can succeed if it is more than aspirin tablet. Men need a degree of material security. But the years confirm what Christ told His tempter: "Man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from God." Today's revival of religion will succeed only if it has that needed word from God to man—hope.

Hope is the faith that we are not puppets dangling at the end of a string. Hope is the faith that we have caught hold of a rope that leads directly to the Creator. It is not the amount of money a man may have in the bank which determines whether he has hope. The real answer is to be found in how much he believes that the outcome of the world's drama will be good or bad and how much of it depends upon God and how much upon himself. The writer of the 107th Psalm lists the woes of men. Like a great leitmotif in music he returns to the central theme: Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble; And He delivered them from their distresses.

These things Christ did for His people then. He makes the same offer of hope for us today: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him and he with me."

Methodists Hear 60,000 Additional Members Needed

LAKESIDE, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church was told Friday Methodism in Ohio must gain a minimum of 60,000 new members by 1960 in order to match the state's growth in population.

The report was submitted by Rev. Edwin W. Dickey, superintendent of the Wilmington district and chairman of a special subcommittee of the Ohio Area Cabinet. He told the conference that far greater numbers of new members are needed "if the church is to maintain its great tradition of evangelism.

A special study committee was authorized by the conference to determine how the church can keep abreast of the population growth.

Rev. Clarence H. Larue, superintendent of the Cleveland District of the Northeast Ohio Conference, told the 1,300 ministerial and lay delegates at least 120 new churches must be built in Ohio by 1960. He is chairman of a cabinet committee which conducted a pilot survey of new church needs in Ohio.

The delegates voted overwhelmingly to ratify proposed constitutional amendments calling for simplified procedure in integrating Negro churches.

Two rural churches were given awards of merit for their building and improvement achievements during the past year. The Brice Methodist Church of the Chillicothe District received the Class A award—for churches in communities of less than 500 population—and the Forest Methodist Church in the Lima District received the Class B award—for churches in communities of 500 to 2,500 population.

Confident Living

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Amazing Power of the Subconscious Mind

I quote a great many people in these columns of mine. I have quoted Albert Einstein and Sir James Jeans and William James. I have repeated the words of Ralph Waldo Emerson and Henry David Thoreau. Today I want to quote a cowboy.

Dr. Peale

Now, famous philosophers are not always the wisest men in the world. Fisherman, farmers, cowboys — men who live with the universe — may often have more native wisdom and insight.

The man I want to quote obviously never had much schooling. His letter came to me from San Antonio, Texas, and, although it may not be the finest example of English prose style, it is sincere and thought provoking. He wrote:

"Dear Sir,

"What is the thing that is spoke of as subconscious? I have used that thing all my life and I know there is something about it that I don't understand. I have read all I have gotten a chance to on the subject. I strongly believe it is something he can use. I believe that it has saved my life many times.

"I was raised in West Texas and I spent much of my life breaking wild horses. And I know something that is called the subconscious will work on horses. I know that something travels from man to horse, and from horse to man. I have felt it on the bridle reins. That same thing will tell me which trail to take when I am lost in the mountains or on the plains. It guides me through the darkness of the night.

"You may think I am crazy to make such statements, but I won't try to do anything without first asking that thing about it. And then I act quick when the answer comes.

"Now if you can see any sense to this question and these statements, will you please answer me in very simple language.

"Your friend."

WELL, MY FRIEND, the cowboy may not define the subconscious the same way my friend, Dr. Smiley Blanton, the psychiatrist, would. But I think that, basically, their definitions would not be too far apart.

This cowboy, living with the stars and the wind and the sun and the plains and the mountains, has felt God's hand guiding him, not from outside but from within himself. As William James said — and I'm back to quoting him — "Apparently there is one great universal mind and since man enters into this universal mind, he is a fragment of it." The mind of God comprehends us all, and the flashes of it that enter into the workings of our subconscious are at one with Him.

PEOPLE EVERYWHERE are reading and talking about a woman who was hypnotized and began to remember another life generations ago as Bridey Murphy. Although it is hard to explain, there is nothing unusual about her story, she has merely tapped the amazing power of the subconscious mind. A new book, "the Magic Power of Your Mind" by Walter Germain, gives case after case even more astonishing.

Like the people about whom these stories are told, you yourself are a citizen of a dynamic universe, a universe that is not material, but spiritual. It is that universe that is literally the kingdom of God. As you find Him in your thought and faith, you will bring from your subconscious a true guidance for every day of your years.

REFUGE and STRENGTH

Into the House of God they have come for spiritual strength and comfort. The care or sorrow or need which brought them here is not important. It is important that the experiences of a lifetime have taught them that God is their refuge and their strength.

The beauty of faith shines in their faces, and from this devout worship they will go forth stronger in spirit.

But faith is not the exclusive possession of age. From childhood to the grave, man may find hope and comfort and peace in God. For faith banishes fear, overcomes difficulties and imparts new life.

In these troubled days, men need religion more than ever before. In the presence of vast powers hitherto unknown, we may feel frustrated and helpless. Human problems lie heavy upon our spirits. But God is a Rock of Refuge and Pillar of Strength to those who trust Him. Come to the House of the Lord.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Presidents Are Only Human

The indisposition of any president of the United States is news, and the indisposition of President Eisenhower is a special kind of news since he lived through a coronary occlusion last September.

Sooner or later, the President was bound to be ill again with something that would have been routine had he not sustained a heart attack. It finally happened Thursday night after he had attended a dinner given by the Photographers Association.

Thanks to preceding candor in keeping the country informed about President Eisenhower's heart attack and his recovery, James Hagerty, White House press secretary, could pin down quickly the fact it was a digestive upset this time, not another heart attack — but the incident revealed what the problem is going to be from now on.

Presidents are only human. Dwight Eisenhower is subject to all the little miseries that afflict the rest of us. But unlike the rest of us, he is subject to the incessant bombardment of his official position.

On Wednesday, a press-conference question brought forth an answer which was pounced on by critics at home and abroad as a faux pas in international diplomacy; an explanation, which was an apology in a sense, had to be issued.

On Thursday, the House of Representatives turned down the President's earnest plea for restoration of more than a billion dollars slashed from the foreign-aid bill.

These were net additions to the routine tension of the world's most responsible job.

On Thursday night, Dr. Howard M. Snyder, the President's personal physician, was called to the White House to give relief for a presidential illness.

By that time, most of us would have ached all over and our lids would have been flipped open. Only chief executives of the United States are expected to be impervious to anxiety and anger — the Double-A threat to the health of the American people.

Speaking Acquaintances

A friendly conversation between President Eisenhower and George Meany, president of AFL-CIO, when the latter's new headquarters building in Washington was dedicated may ease pressure on the toughest problem in unionism.

The President suggested to Mr. Meany, according to The New York Times, that he wanted to back up with White House action efforts of the AFL-CIO to keep underworld elements out of unions. Mr. Meany said the unions would welcome a constructive investigation of racket inroads.

The speaking acquaintanceship between these two men may help both of them in their jobs—President Eisenhower as chief of a government that must protect its citizens against criminal elements, President Meany as chief executive of an organization that cannot afford to bear the black eye given to it by racketeering elements. Without strong government backing, AFL-CIO could carry on a housecleaning project only at the expense of internal strife that its leadership cannot afford at this early stage of the still untried merger.

If White House action materializes, it can be attributed to the fact the occupant of the White House felt free to take the president of AFL-CIO into his confidence and vice versa and that neither man was trying to take the other into camp.

On Celebrating the Fourth

The current Marion civic effort to arrange a public Fourth of July celebration, with a full-scale fireworks display, should be commended. We're all in favor of it.

Despite its deep patriotic significance, the Fourth has become a second echelon holiday from a celebration standpoint, and that doesn't seem right.

The decisive and almost complete victory for a Safe and Sane Fourth in Ohio is, of course, the reason the holiday no longer rates near the top on the youngsters' preference list.

No sensible person really could wish for a return to the Insane Fourth, with its yearly toll of death and injury from fireworks.

Nevertheless, a public celebration and fireworks display in Marion should revive some of the flavor of the holiday and help to remind us that it is a joyous occasion marking the declaration of our nation's independence.

Spring Fever

Never did have a chance this spring to write about spring fever . . .

The few times a case seemed to be getting started, brrr. It turned cold. Or grr. It rained.

That chemical change the doctors believe causes you to feel as though you were turning to jasmine-flavored Jello inside had to be put off indefinitely.

April passed. May passed. The school kids passed, most of them. It looked for a while as if June would pass.

Then it happened. Spring fever. Jasmine jello heavy-lidded eyes . . . that wonderful, no-account, roll-me-under-a-bush feeling.

These delayed reactions, they say, are the worst

As Dagwood would say, "Fnff . . ."

Religion In and On the Job

The Broken Figurine

By EUGENE CARR

Paul had been gone almost an hour, but Betty still sat at the breakfast table staring into her half-filled coffee cup.

She had dreaded this moment. She had been afraid of it. They had been drifting farther and farther apart recently, and now the break had come.

She told herself she did not know why. But she did know why! Paul was selfish and self-centered! He insisted on everything revolving around his interests! Whatever they did together, it had to be done his way! And she had come to resent always giving in to him. And he knew it!

They had quarreled last night over nothing more than a television program. The quarrel had continued this morning at breakfast. Paul had said he was going to talk with a lawyer. Perhaps he would be home tonight — perhaps not!

She heard the back door open and close, and footsteps coming through the kitchen. She recognized the walk.

"Anybody home?" her mother called.

Betty waited.

"Well — what's wrong here?" her mother exclaimed, as she entered the dinette. "It's nearly ten o'clock and breakfast dishes still on the table! This isn't like you, Betty. Was Paul late this morning?"

"No — left at the same time," Betty answered.

Her mother turned to the credenza for a coffee cup.

"Why, Betty — what happened—your finest china figurine — here on the floor — broken!"

"Paul knocked it off as he was leaving," Betty answered, guardedly. "It was an accident."

Her mother stood looking at the pieces of china scattered on the floor. She knew her daughter too well to think she would be upset over a broken figurine.

"It looks as though someone will have to do a piecing-together job around here," she said, finally.

She gathered up the broken figurine in a napkin, brought a tube of cement to the table, and methodically set about fitting the pieces in place.

"You know, my dear," she said, as she worked, "when something like this happens, you must take care of it right away, or the pieces might become lost, and you wouldn't be able to put them all together again.

"Almost always, you will find, you can repair this sort of thing so you would hardly know anything had happened. But, you must get to it before it is too late, even if you feel you weren't to blame in the first place.

"And you should understand, Betty, very often it is someone other than the person who does the breaking who must do the mending. It is always worth the effort, if you really want to preserve the finer things you have."

Where's the Fire

BIG LAKE, Minn. (AP) — The volunteer fire crew never dreamed there were so many things in Big Lake that could burn. They got their first alarm at 2 p.m. and kept spraying water steadily until midnight.

Their assignments included a grass fire, a burning cottage, another grass fire, one at a brooder house and barn, a flaming car and a third grass fire. Then the car broke out in flames again and had to be doused for good.

Dear Nephew: You can tub-thump me until you are blue in the face, and I will still say that public interest and approval do not set standards.

Standards ultimately are set by specialists who have taken the time to find out what they are talking about, not by ordinary people who drift hither and yon like swarms of grasshoppers.

Just because a few million of them land on something and devour it does not mean they are making a conscious judgment on its quality. It means only that they are hungry.

We played all the records you sent to us and tried to listen with an open mind. To give the performers the benefit of a doubt, we listened twice to all their stuff and three times to some of it.

All we could detect in most of the recordings was a lack of talent thinly disguised by instrumental and vocal tricks. In some of the recordings, even talent would not have concealed the lack of artistry in the music itself.

In a few recordings, on the other hand, we concluded that talent had been deliberately concealed for the sake of making the recording acceptable, since this seems to be one of the ways these days to get a hit.

Please do not think we are being critical of this practice, because we are. We are being critical in the same way that we have been critical of shoddy efforts in other lines that we have discussed in former years — painting, architecture, clothing, literature, food and so on.

That is the best part of our argument over the recordings; it is a continuation of an argument that began when you were a teen-ager and inclined to rush into every clothing fad that came to your attention.

Do you remember the bell-bottom pants with the red inserts and the little bells that tinkled? Do you remember when you went through a stage of wearing spats — against our wishes, because you looked like a sap?

And on the other side of the case, do you remember when you, yourself, objected to the atrocious architecture of some of the houses built in the twenties, the artless and sloppy stuff palmed off on the gullible as poetry about the same time and your own belated decision that you would not pretend to see any merit in paintings that could have been done by an untutored and untalented child — and may very well have been done by a child, for all you knew?

That is all we have to say about the recordings. We are glad you enjoy them. They are a matter of taste, like powdered eggs. People who never learned what fresh eggs taste like can be kidded into believing powdered eggs are the real thing. But you can't kid an old duffer like me who knows how to suck eggs.

Neither your aunt nor I would be foolish enough to predict anything about the music on those recordings. For all we know, it may supplant what we believe is music that comes up to high standards. People who screech and thump and bleat and blat may become top-notch artists, respected and loved by all who understand the artistry of music.

It could only happen if there is an abandonment of existing standards. We think good taste will take care of that and it won't be long until the Pied Piper's followers will wonder what mesmerized them.

Regards to all the family.

Presidential Slip

By David Lawrence

President Eisenhower's foreign-aid program — mostly military and much needed — is in trouble in Congress, and this is due largely to his own mistakes in tactics. Thus, the damage done by the President's off-hand remarks at Wednesday's press conference is incalculable. Even the clarifying statement issued Thursday afternoon does not erase the injury done when the President, in effect, encouraged "neutralism" and caused the many allies and trusted friends of the United States in Southeast Asia who have joined American in military alliances to wonder if they were being let down by Mr. Eisenhower. The telephones buzzed with expressions of shock and surprise and at times righteous indignation as the news of what Mr. Eisenhower said on Wednesday reached diplomats who represent America's allies in Asia. On Capitol Hill there was consternation. At the State Department there was an obvious discomfort but a discreet silence.

Lawrence

To understand what happened, it is necessary to present here the text of the President's remarks at the press conference as authorized for publication:

-:-

"NOW, TODAY there are certain nations that say they are neutral. This doesn't necessarily mean what it is so often interpreted to mean, neutral as between right and wrong or decency or indecency.

"They are using the term 'neutral' with respect to attachment to military alliances. And may I point out that I cannot see that that is always to the disadvantage of such a country as ours.

"If a nation is truly a neutral, if it is attacked by anybody —and we are not going to attack them — public opinion of the world is outraged. If it has announced its military association with another great power, things could happen to it, difficulties along its borders and people would say 'Good enough for it. They asked for it.' So let us not translate this meaning of the word 'neutral' as between contending military forces, even though the conflict is latent, and neutral as between right and wrong."

But, asked some of the diplomats who represent countries that have already joined America in military alliances: "Shall we tell our people now that they were wrong and that, if attacked, they 'asked for it'?"

The President heard from his colleagues inside the government who advised a public statement. Here it is in its essential part:

"It is obvious that in some countries of the world there are certain ideological, geographical or other reasons making military alliances impractical. Such nations may declare themselves to be neutral, hoping thus to secure the support of world opinion against attack from any quarter. Neutrality does not mean either disarmament or immunity from attack. We have had historical examples of this kind of neutrality for many decades. . . .

"The President does believe that there are special conditions which justify political neutrality but that no nation has the right to be indifferent to the fate of another, or, as he put it to be 'neutral as between right and wrong or decency or indecency.'

"The President does not believe that association for mutual security with the United States will involve any country in added danger but, on the contrary, will provide added security on the basis of mutuality and scrupulous respect for the independence of each. As the President pointed out, the United States is not going to attack anybody; but some great powers have shown an aggressive disposition, and military association with such a power could lead to difficulties."

WHY DID THE President plunge into such a delicate field of discussion, anyway, without going over carefully in advance with the secretary of state the text of what he had to say?

The answer is that, with the press conferences conducted as they are today, when a President's impromptu remarks are quoted directly without regard for the sensibilities of governments abroad, tragic mistakes like this will happen. They have occurred before under previous administrations.

Unfortunately, Mr. Eisenhower isn't "briefed" in advance as he should be. Many of his friends in New York and elsewhere who have access to him have been dinning into his ear statements about the Asian situation which seek to justify neutralism and the expenditure of billions of the United States to nations that tomorrow may become Communist.

Mr. Eisenhower allows such friends to influence him, and the State Department is often in the dark as to what is going on.

This intervention of a separate king of "State Department" at the White House is a difficult thing to deal with. It is amazing that a man with the President's fidelity to well-defined lines of responsibility in military life should tolerate an influence on foreign policy separate from the officials charged with responsibility in making it.

The same phraseology and argument used in his press-conference statements of Wednesday can be found in the writings and speeches of the clique which has access to Mr. Eisenhower and is known in many parts of the world as the "real State Department."

Darkhorse From Missouri

By JAY HAYDEN

Adlai Stevenson's sweeping victory in California has left him with only one big obstacle to the Democratic presidential nomination —that is, how to cash in on the very apparent preference of him by the Dixiecrat South without driving away equally evident Northern support.

At this point Stevenson appears to have positively sewed up about 375 of the 686½ delegates votes required for nomination.

Actually his outlook is much better than that because the next best contestant, Estes Kefauver, has only 164 with the remaining 834 convention votes on the fence, widely scattered among favorite sons or still to be chosen.

Even the 164 for Kefauver are thinly held in that most of them were won in uncontested primaries and are committed no farther than the first convention ballot.

Looming formidably, however, is the North-South difference over treatment of Negroes, which split the Democratic party wide open in both 1948 and 1952 and threatens even more so this year due to the Supreme Court's ban on segregation in public schools.

The Democratic convention still confronts what Secretary of State Dulles once termed, looking at the world stage, an "agonizing decision."

The problem is whether to try to sluff off the whole question by writing a platform essentially noncommittal as to the race issue and naming candidates to fit that conception, or to take a firm stand one way or the other.

Stevenson's greatest single element of strength at this writing is that virtually all the South — including even such violent exponents of white supremacy as Talmadge of Louisiana—are ready and anxious to take him.

But for that very reason some important Northern leaders — Govs. Harriman of New York and Williams of Michigan conspicuous among them — see the nomination of Stevenson as fatal to Democratic chances in November.

The threat to Stevenson was clearly expressed in the "Michigan Declaration," proclaimed at Grand Rapids last week end with the announcement that it will be urged for inclusion in the Democratic National Platform.

That pronouncement included not only all the old shibboleths of racial equality such as FEPC, anti-lynching, anti-poll tax, plus compulsory school desegregation, but proposed in effect that the federal government take over control of elections in the South.

Specifically it called for expulsion from Congress of any of its members who got there as a result of "unconstitutional and illegal denials of the right to vote."

If the latter phrase means, as it seems to, that every congressman elected from a district in which Negroes are discriminated against at the polls should be expelled by his fellows, all members from Mississippi, South Carolina, Alabama, Louisiana, and most of those from seven other Southern states would be ousted.

It is not too much to predict that the adoption of a Democratic party resolution, predicated even remotely on the idea of national control of elective processes, would lose not four Southern states — as in 1948 and 1952 — but all of the South.

Under exactly like conditions in 1948, the Democratic convention adopted a firm condemnation of racial discrimination even though President Truman and virtually all other top leaders of the party tried desperately to maintain a less committal proposal by the resolutions committee.

Now, similarly, a strong commitment of the party on the race issue will be hard to head off if it reaches the convention floor.

The saving feature may be that beyond Stevenson the party has no place to go. For example, Harriman or Williams as the Democratic presidential nominee would run the South out of the party with or without a corresponding racial equality plank. And it is equally inconceivable that the party will choose an outright Southerner, such as Lyndon Johnson of Texas.

The escape hatch mostly urged so far is Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, recommended mainly on the ground that his state lies about midway of the country, north, south, east and west, and up to now nobody knows where he stands on the race issue.

It is an axiom of politics, however, that before moving to a dark horse the front runner must be stopped by somebody else, and right now there is nobody even close to Stevenson up front.

The man is dishonest who knows how to accept a favor but does not know how to return it. — Plautus

Honorary Degrees for 1956

GIDEON SCRIBBOCK: Putting through a housing project, you left one tree on the property, and not by accident or oversight. This makes you conspicuous among the builders of 1956. Help yourself to any degree in the showcase and won't you stay for a couple of beers?

-:-

WESLEY WIDGETTS: A high public official, you openly declared yourself against ruinous public debt, spoke forcefully for economy despite the laughter, and on one occasion took the position that another six-lane highway was more than the community could afford for the next few years. We crown you Doctor of Distinguished Thinking and throw in a box of cigars.

-:-

CARROWAY PUDGE: An airwave comedian, at no time during the past year did you use any gags about Jack Benny's age, Jimmy Durante's nose or Bing Crosby's gold. You even went on record as expressing a belief all three had been overdone. Step up for the degree of Master of Good Judgment.

-:-

PETTIGREW X SCRATCH: You went shopping in a supermarket for the wife, found yourself in line behind a woman checking out with 45 items and displayed no impatience whatever, despite the fact all you had in the wagon was a can of beans and some bananas. You are a man who takes the breaks as you find them. You name the degree you are after and we will provide it.

—:—

FRISBY GOOSENECK: A manufacturer of paper napkins for the drugstore luncheonette trade, you came out flatly against the four-inch by five-inch type, which is of no use whatever to any customer except a Singer midget wearing a rubber vest. You turned out a king-sized paper napkin and lifted the morale of the bacon-and-egg set everywhere. Would you rather be Doctor of Distinguished Lap Coverage or Master of Happier Lunchroom Patrons?

-:-

AMANDA BIMBLE: Hostess in a roadside inn, you never during the year clearly saw two people coming in, with no other living soul within sight, and asked in a loud voice, "Two?" You thought it ridiculous to ask confirmation of a low count. Honorary degree my eye, my gal, you get a mink coat and a trip to Honolulu!

Vincent Price and Jockey Billy Pearson are tied again under the art category on "The $64,000 Challenge." . . . How a jockey could get to be an art expert on old masters is puzzling, but Shudda Haddim says, "I bet on him once in a race and he must of stopped at a museum at the far turn." . . . . Price breaks fast, is a flashy performer and looks a winner; Pearson stumbles at the gate, runs wide and appears licked, but comes through with an amazing run to get into what can be appropriately called "a photo finish."

Louis Wolfson gave to each member of the University of Georgia graduating class a share of stock in Merritt, Chapman and Scott . . . A certificate of Merritt, as it were. . . (This sort of thing can lead to the bid-and-asked sheepskin.)

Porterfield Claims Home at Hospital Site Not Approved

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A $7,500 residence at Apple Creek State Hospital in Wayne County was built without authorization, says Dr. John D. Porterfield, state director of mental hygiene and correction.

Porterfield, in a letter to the State Controlling Board, said Friday he learned of the project after work had progressed to the point where it was too late to stop.

The house was built for P. E. Mosier, new business manager at the institution.

Porterfield called it "an irregular procedure" and said "authorization should have been obtained before construction was started."

He added: "The only defense we can offer is that to have gone ahead with the rehabilitation of the old farm house, occupied by the previous business manager, would have cost at least as much and perhaps more than the new house that was built."

NAACP Raps Eastland For Civil Rights Delay

NEW YORK (AP) —The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People has accused the Democratic Party of "insincerity" on civil rights legislation now in a Senate committee.

NAACP executive Secretary Roy Wilkins said Friday Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss) is carrying on a "filibuster" to delay his Senate Judiciary Committee hearings into the legislation. Wilkins said the committee is calling only one or two witnesses each week although there are 75 yet to be heard.

"This is a fantastic situation amounting to a filibuster which transfers delaying action from the senate floor to the committee room," Wilkins said.

Theater Attractions

Following is a summary of the motion pictures that will be presented at theaters in Marion next week.

—Ohio—

Opening in a midnight show tonight at the Ohio Theater and continuing Sunday through Tuesday will be a double feature, "Female Jungle" starring Kathleen Crowley, Lawrence Tierney, John Carradine and Jayne Mansfield, and "The Oklahoma Woman" with Richard Denning, Peggie Castle and Cathy Downs.

A murder mystery involving a policeman who believes he may hangover is the background of "Female Jungle." Step by step he retraces his actions to solve the crime and identify the killer.

The latter is a story of the ruthless queen of the outlaws who shoots and whips her way to wealth and power stopping at nothing to gain her ends.

Showing Wednesday, Thuraday, Friday and Saturday nights will be "Tempest in the Flesh" starring Francoise Arnoul, Raymond Pellegrin, Philippe Lemaire and Catherine Gora, plus "New Orleans Uncensored" starring Arthur Franz and Beverly Garland. No one under 16 will be admitted to the theater.

"Tempest in the Flesh" tells the story of a woman branded by society as immoral, who is physically unable to conquer her craving to be loved by many men.

"New Orleans Uncensored" is a story of what happens when a mob moves in to take over a town.

On Wednesday afternoon, the 13th, a special children's matinee, "Comedy Spookathon," will be shown starting at 1:30. On the bill will be "Abbott and Costello Meet the Mummy," "The Bowery Boys Meet the Monsters," a Little Rascals comedy and two color cartoons.

A special matinee next Saturday afternoon will include "Man In the Saddle," technicolor film starring Randolph Scott, a Three Stooges comedy plus six color cartoons.

Opening in a special midnight show next Saturday night, June 16, will be a double feature, "Swamp Women" starring Marie Windsor, Carole Matthews and Beverly Garland, plus "Blonde Bait" with Beverly Michaels, Jim Davis, Joan Rice, Richard Travis and Paul Cavanagh.

—Palace—

Alfred Hitchcock's tale of danger and terror, "The Man Who Knew Too Much," with James Stewart and Doris Day starred, is currently showing through Tuesday at the Palace Theater.

On the bill with "The Man Who Knew Too Much" is "Ghost Town," a western suspense drama starring Kent Taylor, John Smith and Marian Carr.

In Vistavision and technicolor, the former picture was filmed against the different worlds of French Morocco. James Stewart and Doris Day are cast as a doctor and his singer wife, on vacation in Marrakech. Stewart witnesses the knifing of an Arab in the city's back streets and while tending the dying man is given information of an impending assassination.

He thus becomes a dangerous man to the plotters and from that moment on neither he nor anyone belonging to him are safe.

"Ghost Town" is concerned with an oddly assorted group of people in a stage coach making its way across Indian Territory who are forced to "hole up" in a ghost town when Chief Dull Knife and his tribe of Cheyennes attack them.

Wednesday through Saturday, "Bhowani Junction," filmization of a best-seller novel, will be the attraction. Ava Gardner and Stewart Granger are starred with Bill Travers heading the supporting cast.

The story, centering on an Anglo-Indian girl torn between her love for three men of widely contrasting personalities, is laid in post-war Pakistan. "Bhowani Junction" derives its title from the name of the town which is a strategic point on the Deli-Deccan railway.

It is here that the Anglo-Indian girl, Victoria Jones, played by Ava Gardner, returns on leave from four years of service with the Womens' Auxiliary Corps of the Indian Army, to be met by Patrick Taylor, also an Anglo-Indian, who has loved her for years.

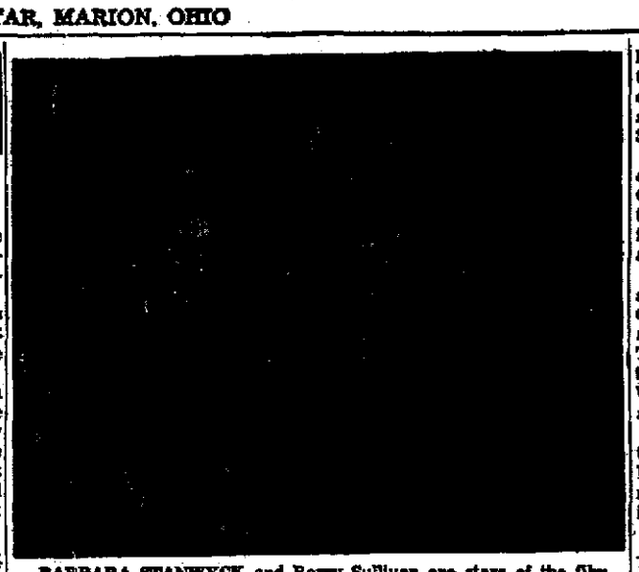
But when Communist - inspired anti-British violence results in a plot to wreck the railway, Victoria is again called on duty to assist Col. Rodney Savage (Stewart Granger), commanding a battalion of Gurka Rifles sent out to establish order and to protect the railway from sabotage. Their association is heightened by the conflict in Victoria's heart as to whether her loyalty lies with the English people of her father or the Indians of her mother.

Also showing Wednesday through Saturday as a featurette will be "The Wedding in Monaco," official and only complete film record of the marriage of Prince Rainier III and Grace Kelly.

Thursday afternoon, the first of a series of weekly childrens shows will be presented, each one to include a special feature and five cartoons.

The feature will be "Prince Valiant," in Cinemascope and technicolor and starring James Mason, Janet Leigh, Robert Wagner, Debra Paget and Sterling Hayden.

Recreated from the world-famous adventure serial, the film shows Robert Wagner as "Valiant" who travels to King Arthur's court to earn knighthood. His quest for the "Black Knight," the hand-to-hand duels, the tournament days at Camelot and battles with the Viking hordes are depicted.



BARBARA STANWYCK and Barry Sullivan are stars of the film, "The Maverick Queen," which will be a first run single feature Wednesday through Saturday at the North Drive-In Theater.

—North Drive-In—

"The Tender Trap," a comedy-romance in Cinemascope and color, based on a Broadway stage hit, will be the feature attraction of a double bill Sunday through Tuesday at the North Drive-In Theater.

Starred are Frank Sinatra, Debbie Reynolds, David Wayne and Celeste Holm.

Completing the billing will be "Treasure of Ruby Hills" starring Zachary Scott.

The story in "The Tender Trap" is built around the adventures of a gay New York bachelor, who believes the Utopian life means safety in numbers until he finds he is hard put to win the one girl in the world he wants. Frank Sinatra as Charlie Reader has a flock of career girls breaking their necks to catch him.

Debbie Reynolds, as Julie Gillis, becomes one of Charlie's clients but definitely refuses to join his slaves. She has a marriage plan of her own in mind, which she sticks to, and in the end brings sanity out of chaos.

A first run film showing Wednesday through Saturday as a single feature will be "The Maverick Queen" starring Barbara Stanwyck and Barry Sullivan.

—South Drive-In—

"Track of the Cat" starring Robert Mitchum, Teresa Wright and Tab Hunter, and "The Girl Rush" starring Rosalind Russell, Fernando Lamas, Eddie Albert and Gloria DeHaven, will be the double feature attraction Sunday through Tuesday at the South Drive-In Theater.

"The Girl Rush" is a musical in Vistavision and technicolor and is set in the city of Las Vegas. Rosalind Russell is seen in a dancing and singing role and the story revolves around her attempts to establish a hotel in Las Vegas to rival the fabulous Flamingo Hotel.

Billed for Wednesday through Saturday will be "Montana Belle" starring Jane Russell, along with "Seven Cities of Gold."

—State—

"Tennessee's Partner," technicolor film starring John Payne and Rhonda Fleming, and "Mystery of the Black Jungle" with Lex Barker and Jane Maxwell, will be shown Sunday and Monday at the State Theater.

Billed for Tuesday and Wednesday will be Walt Disney's "Davy Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier," in technicolor, plus "Jennifer" starring Ida Lupino and Howard Duff.

John Derek and Joan Evans are stars of the technicolor film, "The Outcast," which will be the main attraction of a double feature Thursday and Friday. Completing the billing will be "No Man's Woman" starring Marie Windsor and Patric Knowles.

Saturday only, the double feature will include "Stranger on Horseback," in technicolor, starring Joel McCrea, and "The Atomic Man" with Gene Nelson.

KNOWLEDGE OF AN assassination plot turns a trip abroad into a nightmare for James Stewart and Doris Day, starred in Alfred Hitchcock's "The Man Who Knew Too Much," currently showing through Tuesday at the Palace Theater as one attraction of a double feature.

Driver Suffocates In Freak Mishap

CADIZ, Ohio. (AP) —Acting coroner Walter Yost put together this account of a freak accident that killed Ralph Simpson, 59, an auditor in the internal revenue service office at Steubenville:

Simpson's car went into a ditch near Cadiz Thursday night. Simpson, alone in the car, spun the wheels trying to get the car out. Friction ignited the tires, and fire reached the upholstery. The car windows were closed. Simpson apparently suffocated from the fumes.

The body was found by a boy going to work in a farm field Friday.

Man Killed in Crash

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—A car-truck collision caused fatal injuries to Hayner Sargeant Friday night at the junction of Ohio 73 and U. S. 22, west of here.

Bride Misses Death in Auto Crash on Pike

FREMONT, Ohio (AP)—They had been married only a few hours, and 19-year-old Beverly snuggled close to her husband, Airman 3.c Don T. Sipe, as he drove away on their honeymoon.

Maybe it was because she was sitting so close that he lost control of the car, which hit a guard rail on the Ohio Turnpike near the Norwalk - Sandusky interchange Thursday night.

But if she hadn't been sitting close to him she might have been killed. Forty-nine feet of guard-rail went through the automobile, right through the regular position of a passenger in the front seat.

Mrs. Sipe, of Toledo, suffered a broken ankle, contusions and abrasions. Her 19-year-old husband, stationed at McDill Field, Tampa, Fla., suffered abrasions.

Fire Destroys Bakery in Ohio

Loss Is Half-Million At Washington C.H.

WASHINGTON COURT HOUSE, Ohio (AP) — The huge Pennington Bros. Bakery on the west edge of Washington Court House burned out early today.

Only the walls of the bakery which covered more than an acre of ground were left standing.

Fire Chief George Hall tentatively estimated damage at more than one-half million dollars.

There was only one casualty in the fire which broke out about 2 a. m., EST. Fireman Russell Whited was taken to Memorial Hospital after he was overcome by smoke. His condition was not serious.

Firemen reported the blaze broke out in the roof. The cause was not determined immediately.

They reported the fire had gained too much headway and they were unable to prevent its spread. Every piece of fire-fighting equipment was called to the scene.

Plant officials said about 200 persons were employed by the bakery which served a wide area of central and western Ohio. The plant is one of several operated in Ohio by Pennington, they said.

4 Saved as Auto Is Hit at Crossing, Marion Man Held

PORT CLINTON, Ohio (AP) — A Port Clinton man Friday night rescued his wife and three children from his automobile just seconds before it was demolished by a New York Central freight train at the Tettau Road crossing three miles west of here.

The automobile went onto the railroad crossing when hit from the rear by another car.

James Williams, 36, suffered severe bruises in the collision, but succeeded in rescuing his wife, Eva, 32, and their children—Eugene, 11; Larry, 9, and Peggy, 7.

Deputy Sheriff Myron Hetrick said Williams had stopped behind another car at the crossing to wait for the train when his car was hit by an automobile driven by Stanley Swayne, 23, of Marion, O. The first car was pushed across the track by the impact.

Hetrick said Swayne was jailed on a charge of reckless operation of an automobile.

Mrs. Williams also was bruised and Larry suffered a concussion in the collision.

Chamber Membership Drive Reports Progress

Progress of the annual membership drive of the Marion Chamber of Commerce was reported to be good at the first report meeting held Friday noon at Hotel Harding.

In verbal reports the membership drive workers said they have a number of strong prospects for membership and have signed up a large number of new members. The drive began Tuesday morning and will end next Tuesday at 4 p.m. when workers are to submit final written reports.

Hugh E. Webster, executive secretary, said that most of the workers hoped to reach their quotas by the final report time.

Our Presidents

By Patrick and Vinmont

ZACHARY TAYLOR

Born on a farm in Orange County, Virginia, November 24, 1784, he was the son of a soldier who helped Washington win the Christmas battle of Trenton. The family moved to Kentucky, where he grew up in a log cabin and attended the country school. His only job, until of age, was helper on his father's farm.

Boyhood ambition was a military career. At 23, he was appointed lieutenant in the army; at the close of the War of 1812 he was a major; a colonel in the Black Hawk War, 1832; brigadier general in the Seminole War, 1836. From 1840 to 1846, in command of the Department of the Southwest, he opened the engagement with Mexico at Palo Alto, 1846, fought the battle of Resaca de la Palma, and captured Monterrey. At Buena Vista, with an army outnumbered four to one, he spurned Santa Anna's demand for surrender and defeated the Mexicans. Spent forty years of his life in the army; disliked military ceremony and was all his nickname, "Old Rough and Ready," implied.

After the Mexican War, he retired to his farm. He greeted the first Presidential proposal as nonsense, but soon yielded to the tempting suggestion. The Whigs, who nominated him without knowing how he stood on any question, were in a quandary when his acceptance was not forthcoming. The delay was caused by his refusal to accept the letter containing notification of his selection as Presidential candidate, on which postage was due.

Inaugurated twelfth President of the United States March 5, 1849, he served sixteen months. The Compromise of 1850 was being prepared. Although a slave-holder himself, he showed firm determination to uphold the Union. He denounced secession as treasonable and warned that he would in person command the army against any rebellion. Overcome by long exposure to the blazing sun at the laying of the corner-stone of the Washington Monument on Independence Day, he died in the White House July 9, 1850, aged 65.

His favorite pastime was horseback riding.

Penniless Family Sent Back South, Ohio Relief Denied

CLEVELAND (AP)—A judge Friday ordered a penniless Negro woman and eight children sent back to Alabama on a railroad train.

Judge Albert Woldman said Ohio couldn't legally give them charity, and Alabama could. Ohio law requires one year residence.

Mrs. Martha Winston, 40, separated from her husband five years ago.

Last October she brought her seven children here "because I didn't want them to grow up in the south." Eleven days ago her oldest daughter, age 17, bore a child out of wedlock. For the last two days the family had nothing to eat.

Hailed into Juvenile Court on a technical charge of child neglect because she kept the younger children out of school, Mrs. Winston said:

"I kept them out because they did not have any shoes or clothes to wear. I won't go back South."

"Do you want your children to starve? Do you want that little baby to die?" asked Judge Woldman.

"I'll do the best I can and if that's not enough, then it's up to the Lord," she replied.

A welfare worker told the judge: "If these people are allowed to remain here, word will get back to the South and we will be flooded with similar families."

The welfare people said they had checked and relief funds were available for the family in Sumter County, Ala.

An attorney now hving in Bay Village, he has been active with the Jaycees for several years and in the last two years has received the Cleveland Jaycees' distinguished service award. As president of the group this year, he will be a delegate to the Jaycees' international convention in New Zealand this fall.

Mr. Rea is a graduate of Harding High School (in 1942), Oberlin College and the John Marshall Law School in Cleveland. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Doren Rea of Sandusky, who hved here for many years. He is married and the father of two children.

Gasoline Stolen

Theft of gasoline from Borden Dairy Co. trucks parked beside the plant and offices on Olney Ave. was reported to Marion police Friday. The report to police was that someone has been draining most of the gas out of the tanks on the trucks almost every night.

City Rejects Only Offer on Property

Only one bid was received for purchase of the old city barn property on Owens St and it will be rejected, Safety-Service Director R. Guy Bigelow said today.

The only bid received prior to the closing deadline at noon Friday was submitted by Dale Morehart of 441 E. Mark St. and was for $3,000, Mr. Bigelow said.

He indicated that the property will likely be readvertised for sale.

The property was authorized for sale by City Council after the new city maintenance garage on W. Center St. was acquired. The city had hoped to sell the Owens St. property at a sizeable sum to help defray the expense of the purchase of the new property. The W. Center St. property cost the city $70,000.

Marion Boy, 7, Taken To Children's Hospital

A seven-year old Marion boy was taken to Children's Hospital in Columbus Friday for treatment of convulsions suffered while he was playing in Garfield Park.

Roland Allen Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Marshall of 288 Midlam Ave. was first taken to Marion General Hospital in a police cruiser. Police were called to the park at 2:43 p.m. and found the boy lying on the ground and doubled-up with the convulsions.

Officer Sentenced In Burglary Case To Appeal Verdict

LISBON, Ohio (AP)—The attorney for a former East Liverpool policeman who tried to switch his plea from guilty to innocent on burglary charges said today he would appeal the case.

Dallas Eugene Bishop, 39, one of seven former patrolmen indicted by the Columbiana County Grand Jury, was sentenced Friday to two consecutive prison terms of one to 15 years. Judge Joel H. Sharp, of Common Pleas Court, denied Bishop's request to change his plea from guilty to innocent.

Atty. Hugo Alexander of Steubenville said he would make an immediate appeal to the Seventh District Appellate Court on Bishop's conviction.

He was sentenced for burglaries at the Smith & Phillips Co furniture store in October, 1952, and the Joseph Herman Lumber Co. in June, 1954.

Bishop's attorney indicated that the case would be appealed.

City Hall Landscaping Project Is Completed

A small project to improve the appearance of the front lawn at Marion City Hall has been completed, Mayor Gale D. Ireland said today.

The project was the planting of a multiple row of petunias and other flowers along both sides of the walk leading from the front of city hall to Delaware Ave.

Mayor Ireland said he felt the flowers will help set off the walk and will add to the landscaping around the building.

Fire Reports

FIRE CALLS
(Friday)

10:56 a.m. to the rear of 450 N. Main St. where the engine of an automobile belonging to Cecil Treherne had caught on fire. The blaze had been smothered when Fire Co. No. 3 from the Mark St. station arrived. There was no loss.

2:50 p.m. to the new Ohio Edison building south of Marion on Route 4 where men of the Kissner Construction Co. of Delaware were working. A tank of tar was being heated over a fire and some of the tar spilled into the flames, causing the remainder to catch on fire. Co. No. 1 from Central station answered the call, and there was no loss.

7:38 p.m. to the home of Mrs. Ida Ritzhaupt, 241 Edgwood Dr., from which neighbors had seen smoke pouring. Firemen discovered that Mrs. Ritzhaupt had placed a pan of meat on the kitchen stove and the meat had burned dry, filling the house with smoke. There was no loss other than the burned meat.

Traffic Group To Invite County Representative

Plans to invite a representative of the Marion County commissioners to attend future meetings of the joint traffic committee have been announced by Mayor Gale D. Ireland.

He said the action is being taken because the county paid some $3,400 of the total cost of having the arterial highway report prepared and therefore has an interest in the ultimate outcome of the joint committee's studies. Total cost of the report was $15,000 part of which was paid by the county, part by the city and part by public solicitation.

The joint traffic committee is meeting twice a week to attempt to determine whether to recommend acceptance or rejection of th report by the city and to suggest possible methods of financing the city's share of the cost of proposed construction if the recommendation is to accept the report. Next meeting of the group will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. at City Hall.

Ohio State Lauded For Giving Space To Science Group

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The president of the American Chemical Society Friday praised Ohio State University for helping provide a half-million dollar home for the society's publication, "Chemical Abstracts."

Dr. J. C. Warner, who also heads Carnegie Institute of Technology, spoke at ceremonies dedicating the new three-story, 67-room building on the university campus. The university and the society shared the cost of the building.

A congratulatory telegram from the editor of a Russian magazine, "Referativnyi Zhurnal Khimiya," was read. It said in part:

"Hoping for strengthening and fruitful cooperation to promote dissemination of chemical knowledge the world over."

Continental Can, Glass Merger Vote Scheduled

NEW YORK (AP)—Stockholders of Hazel-Atlas Glass Co., will be asked in August to approve a merger with Continental Can Co., nation's second largest manufacturer of metal containers.

The Associated Press, in a June story on the proposed merger, incorrectly referred to Continental Can Co. as "Canco." "Canco" is an abbreviated name for the American Can Co., Continental's major competitor in the packaging field.

Hazel-Atlas Glass is a major producer of jars and bottles.

UAW Studies Ways To Hike Employment

Union 'Task Force' Set Up at Meeting Of Mayors in Detroit

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—The United Auto Workers set in motion today a "task force" to battle the problem of unemployment in the auto industry.

The latest government estimate has 200,000 auto workers unemployed.

Conference of Mayors

The union's "task force" was set up at a conference of mayors called in Detroit Friday to help solve the industry's plight.

It is made up of a committee of nine mayors, four UAW officials and Michigan's Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

The auto firms will be asked to designate five representatives to serve on the committee. They previously rejected Reuther's bid to take part in a management-labor parley on unemployment.

Reuther said the committee will attempt to get together on matters that are in need of immediate attention and that are non-controversial. The committee then will send a delegation to Washington to discuss the problem with President Eisenhower and congressional leaders. Reuther said the "problem transcends politics" and "we've tried to avoid acting as a narrow economic pressure group."

Reuther warned that the problem "is one of serious proportions and it will become more serious" unless the government joins in "immediate and aggressive action" to deal with it.

"Unemployment breeds unemployment," Reuther said. "The problem is now being dramatized in the auto industry. We are in the vanguard of this technilogical revolution."

Long-Range Planning

Reuther called for long range planning to reduce unemployment stemming from introduction of automation in auto plants.

The UAW president said General Motors had on its drafting boards plans for automated machinery that will assemble the engine blocks of autos.

Appointed to the task force were the mayors of South Bend, Ind.; Milwaukee, Wis.; Toledo, Ohio; Detroit, Hamtramck, Lansing, Flint, Muskegon and Pontiac, Mich.

Mayors attending the conference voiced willingness to go along with the UAW's objectives in relieving unemployment but some of them said they didn't agree with all the points in the UAW program. These proposals included raising state jobless benefits and lifting the federal excise tax on autos and appliances.

Eisenhower Recovering

"the next several days."

Hagerty said another medical bulletin would not be forthcoming until "a little later." This was taken to mean that the third post-operative bulletin might be expected around noon.

The 4:52 medical bulletin said the 65-year-old president's "heart action was normal throughout" the operation.

Eisenhower went under the knife at 1:59 a.m. The operation, performed by a four-man team of surgeons, was concluded at 3:52 a.m.

"The operation was successful," Hagerty said.

He reported later that "an intestinal obstruction due to ileitis, a nonmalignant disease was confirmed and the obstruction was relieved."

"The President's condition continues very satisfactory," Hagerty said.

The impact of this new illness on the President's political future and his candidacy for re-election is sure to be great.

The decision to operate on Eisenhower was announced by Hagerty at a dramatic news conference at 1:15 a.m. That was just about 25 hours after the President was stricken in his White House bedroom.

The President's doctors had diagnosed the ailment as ileitis, inflammation of the small intestine. They also discovered a partial blockage in the intestine. At a midnight conference, the physicians decided to go ahead with an immediate operation to relieve the condition.

When it was concluded, Hagerty relayed this statement to newsmen who jammed a make-shift press room at the hospital:

"The operation was concluded at 3:52 a.m.

"The operation was successful.

"The President's post-operative condition is very satisfactory. He left the operating table in excellent condition.

There was no immediate word on how long the convalescence period may be, or how long Eisenhower will remain in the hospital.

Last fall the President was hospitalized in Denver seven weeks after a heart attack. He was stricken Sept. 24 and did not return to his White House desk until Jan. 9, although he conferred frequently with his advisers before then.

The drama of the predawn operation was witnessed from a distance by a few reporters as it progressed in the main building of the Army's huge medical center.

Newsmen standing outside, perched atop a six-foot high water fountain, could see the third floor operating room and surgeons in blue-green robes. The operating table and the figure of the President were not visible from outside.

Hagerty's statement on the outcome of the surgery was relayed to reporters by Dewey Long, chief of the White House transportation department.

As Hagerty spoke over the telephone from the third floor, Long repeated the announcement word by word to reporters who then raced for telephones to spread the news around the world.

A medical bulletin put out by Hagerty shortly before the operation said:

"This operation will be undertaken immediately."

Hagerty said, in response to questions, that at no time had he heard any mention by the attending physicians of cancer.

As to what an exploratory operation is, Hagerty said "it is an operation to find the cause of the obstruction and to relieve that cause."

In all, 13 physicians took part in the early morning consultations which led to the decision to operate.

The actual operating team was made up of Maj. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton, the commandant at Walter Reed; Dr. Isador Ravdin, professor of surgery at the University of Pennsylvania Medical School, Philadelphia; Dr. Robert T. Gants, chief surgeon at Walter Reed; and Dr. Max D. Smith, assistant chief surgeon at the hospital.

The surgery climaxed a stunning turn of events. Only Thursday evening at a Washington banquet the President appeared to be in good health 8½ months after a heart attack last Sept. 24. A few hours later he became ill and a doctor was summoned to his bedside early Friday morning.

In the afternoon he was removed by stretcher and ambulance to the hospital. He arrived there at 12:40 p.m.

Doctors said before he was admitted to the hospital and afterward that "this is not a heart case" but strictly an intestinal ailment. The White House pictured it as similar to abdominal distress Eisenhower suffered in 1949 and 1953.

Marion Area Auto Mishaps

One person was injured slightly in one of six traffic accidents investigated Friday by Marion police.

Hurt in a collision of his car and another car at an alley intersection just south of W. Center St. and east of Park Blvd. was James A. Martin, 22, of near Marion. The other car involved was driven by Warren M. Womack, 52, of 707 Bennett St. Mr. Martin suffered a bruised left arm and required no medical treatment. The accident occurred at 9:05 a.m., police reported.

Cars driven by Floyd W. Crissinger, 38, of 597 Silver St. and Mary Ann Rice, 27, of LaRue, collided at Silver St. and the C & O Railroad crossing at 6:54 p.m., police reported.

A collision at W. Fairground and Mary Sts. at 11:35 a.m. involved cars driven by Clyde H. Meadows, 58, of near Marion, and R. F. Wise, 58, of near Marion, police reported.

Each of the other three accidents in the city caused less than $100 total damage police estimated.

Truck Strikes Bridge

State patrolmen from the Marion post reported one no-injury accident on Marion area highways during the last 24 hours. It happened Friday night at 10 p.m. on a bridge on Route 95 two and seven-tenths miles east of Route 98.

Patrolmen said a tractor-trailer outfit driven by William Schroeder, 34, of Mansfield apparently swerved too close to the edge of the bridge for the top of the trailer hit the crossbar on the top of the bridge.

Considerable damage was done to the trailer and minor damage was done to the bridge, patrolmen said.

Accident

Monday at 2 p.m. at the Schindewolf - Steiner - Stevens Funeral Home in Kenton. Rev. Stanley Fritz will officiate. Burial will be in Grove Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home.

Two other accidents were investigated by highway patrolmen from Bucyrus Friday and early today. One of them occurred in last night's heavy fog.

At 2:35 p.m. yesterday, Crawford Terry, 29, of near Willard lost control of his car on Crawford County Road 50 northwest of New Washington as he crossed a bridge. The car went off the road on the north side, narrowly missed children playing along the road, and sheered off a telephone pole.

Terry was not injured, but he was cited to appear before Mayor George Schwenley of New Washington June 15 on a charge of reckless driving.

The second accident happened at 1 a.m. on State Route 4 a half-mile south of Bucyrus. A car headed north and driven by Dale Swartz, 34, of Bucyrus was struck in the rear by a tractor-trailer truck operated by Ivan Lanning, 31, of Cleveland as Swartz was slowing down for another truck ahead of him. The dense fog made visibility poor at the time.

Considerable damage was done to the rear of the automobile and to the front of the truck, the patrol said. Lanning posted and forfeited $25 bond in the Bucyrus mayor's court after being charged with failing to stop within the assured clear distance ahead.

Mrs. Dorothy Gail Weiser, mezzo-soprano, and Lowell Douce, baritone, will be heard on the Marion Entertains program Sunday at 1 p.m. over Station WMRN. The program is produced and directed by Mrs. Griselda Davis Dombaugh.

Driver Bleeds To Death After Union Accident

MARYSVILLE, Ohio (AP) — The State Highway Patrol said the driver of a truck bled to death early today after a leg was cut off in a smashup just west of nearby Plain City on Ohio 161.

The patrol said Benjamin Wacco Henley, 39, of Fort Smith, Ark., and Georgia Moorehead, 13, of Conway, Ark., were pinned in the wreckage two hours. Henley was driving the truck which missed a curve in the highway and smashed into an embankment at an underpass, the patrol reported.

Dr. John Adams of Plain City arrived shortly after the accident, the patrol said, but he and others at the scene were unable to get to the injured man.

The girl, Georgia Moorehead, was taken to University Hospital at Columbus with a skull fracture and internal injuries. Her condition today was described as "critical."

Highway patrolmen from the Delaware post who investigated the accident said they received the call on it at 1:10 a.m., a few minutes after it happened. The heavily-loaded tractor-trailer was westbound.

Route 161 leaves Plain City parallel to a railroad track immediately to the south. A short distance west of the corporation line, where the accident occurred, the highway makes a right angle turn to the left through an underpass under the tracks, and then turns right again to the west along the south side of the tracks.

The patrol said that the truck, for an unknown reason, failed to negotiate the first right angle curve going into the underpass and smacked into the embankment and caromed up and over it and against a tree where it came to a stop.

Momentum and weight of the trailer caused it to keep moving forward after the truck cab had halted against the tree. The cab was crushed together, pinning the occupants in the wreckage.

Thief Shoots Official of City In New Jersey

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—City Councilman Jack M. Waldor was shot and critically wounded Friday night by a burglar his wife surprised in a bedroom closet of their home.

Waldor was shot twice in the stomach when he grappled with the intruder who fled with a mink stole belonging to Mrs. Waldor.

The Waldors had just returned home from attending a performance of the Barnum and Bailey Circus here with a granddaughter, nephew, and a neighbors' child.

Police said Waldor's four-year-old granddaughter was a witness to the shooting.

Waldor remained conscious when taken to Beth Israel Hospital in a police ambulance.

Police said after the first bullet hit him Waldor cried out: "You've shot me!"

The burglar replied: "And I'll shoot you again," and did.

Waldor was operated on at the hospital early today. The hospital said one bullet that lodged in the lower abdomen punctured the intestine in 10 places. The second went through him and missed the vital organs. Waldor's condition was termed critical.

Ike's Brother Resigns Post At Penn State

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Milton Eisenhower has submitted for "personal reasons" his resignation as president of Pennsylvania State University. He said his decision to resign was not prompted by the illness of his brother, the President.

Mr. Eisenhower's letter of resignation was disclosed Friday night after he flew to Washington to visit the President at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital.

In a letter to the university board of directors Mr. Eisenhower said he decided to resign more than a month ago. White House Press Secretary James Hagerty said in Washington that the President had known of the decision for four to six weeks.

University officials said the resignation had not been accepted and that they would attempt to persuade Mr. Eisenhower to retain the presidency.

"Absolutely no consideration has been given to a successor," the university said. Eisenhower, who is 56, has been president of the university almost six years. He asked that the resignation become effective by Dec. 31.

Mr. Eisenhower said he did not intend to enter government service and that he would decide his future plans after a brief vacation in July.

Patterson's Hopes Are Dimmed by Broken Bone in Hand

Flashy Boxer Nails Verdict Over Jackson

NEW YORK (AP)—A million dollar heavyweight title production in September between flashy Floyd Patterson and light heavyweight champion Archie Moore hinged today on a broken bone in Patterson's right hand.

The fracture of the fourth metacarpal bone—the little bone back of the knuckle—may prevent the 21-year-old Brooklyn prodigy from swinging his precious mitts for a period of six weeks to three months. That could doom an outdoor extravaganza in Yankee Stadium. There was hope, however, that the healing time may be quicker.

Discovered After Bout

The bad news on the break struck like a delayed bomb. Nobody knew it until more than a half hour after Patterson had whipped Hurricane Tommy Jackson iin a thrilling, no clinch 12-rounder Friday night and virtually sewed up his lucrative shot with Moore.

The news was hard to believe until you saw the splint on the modest youngster's right hand. For it was in the 12th round that Floyd touched off a final stick of dynamite in an effort to stop his almost indestructible opponent. And he used both hands in firing a rapid volley of punches that had Jackson wobbling almost ready to fall.

Dr. Alexander Schiff discovered the break. He said he moved the bone back in position, then placed the fourth finger in a splint.

17th Straight

Patterson proved himself a worthy contender for titular honors in scoring his 17th straight victory and 30th in 31 fights. He was awarded only a split decision but in the opinion of most of the 11,255 who paid $66,038 for the fight and in the eyes of 29 of 30 boxing writers Floyd passed his big test with flying colors.

Patterson at 178 pounds had his 193½ pound foe wobbling in the first, second, fourth, 10th and last rounds.

Jackson began rolling with his swinging punches to the body and chops to the head in the fourth and he swept the seventh, eighth and ninth rounds to make it close.

In the tenth, Patterson turned the tide and swept on to victory in the last three rounds.

PRACTICE PAYS OFF. Al Rosen, Cleveland Indian slugger, who only recently came off the injury list, is shown in batting practice before Friday night's Cleveland-Yankee battle at Yankee Stadium. The session paid off as Rosen rapped out three hits in five trips to the plate to help pace the Tribe to a 9-0 victory. Included in his hits was a two-run homer. He finished the game with three runs driven in.

Leaders Drop First Verdict In Colt Action

Moulders' perfect record was shattered by FOP in makeup Colt League action Friday night at Lincoln Park.

COLT LEAGUE	W	L
Moulders	5	1
FOP	3	3
Elks	2	4
Moose	2	4

FOP edged the league leaders 7-6 in nine innings, handing Moulders its first loss after five straight wins. Elks triumphed over the Moose nine 11-3 in the other contest.

A three-run outburst in the ninth on only one hit, a homer by hurler Steve Flesher, enabled FOP to upset Moulders. Two tallies by the losers in the same frame were offset by FOP's markers.

Two runs in the sixth on four hits had pushed the losers into a 4-4 tie with FOP, which scored runs in the first, fourth, fifth and sixth.

Flesher went the route for FOP, allowing 11 hits, fanning nine, walking two and hitting a batter. Mike Glasco was the Moulders chucker. He surrendered nine hits, struck out five and walked the same number.

Flesher pounded out three hits while Thomas and Duke Goins both collected two for the winners. Ted Anderson, Jim Anspaugh and Dan Davis all had two hits for the losers, with Davis tripling.

Elks pushed across eight third-inning runs and coasted to its victory.

Three hits and six walks figured in the scoring and gave the winners an early 3-2 bulge. Moose had scored twice in the opening frame to take a temporary edge. Three more tallies in the fifth wound up Elks' scoring while Moose's final tally came in the fourth.

Joe Ambrose chalked up the victory, holding Moose to four hits while striking out 12 and walking four. Tom Thackery and Larry Ambrose handled pitching duties for the losers, allowing 12 hits, fanning eight and walking nine.

Ambrose and Ted Fitch both had three hits for Elks.

Yankees Belted by Indians as Wynn Captures First Shutout of Campaign

Largest Crowd of Season Sees Tribe Take 9-0 Win

NEW YORK (AP) — "Hmmmm," said Senor Al Lopez today with the slightest trace of a smile, "recent developments in our league have been encouraging, very encouraging."

Was the Cleveland manager referring, perhaps, to his club's 9-0 victory over the New York Yankees Friday night, which left the Tribe just 3½ games behind the Bronx Bombers?

"Not exactly," he said. "Of course, I always hope to get the sort of a game Early Wynn pitched for us. But I'm thinking more about the other teams. The way I look at it, if teams like Detroit and Kansas City can play the Yanks on even terms, we're in a stronger position."

Lopez pointed out that his one big worry had been the Tribe's hitting.

Hitting Improves

"But when we hit like we did against the Yanks, we certainly have no worries. Also, did you notice how well Al Rosen has looked since he returned a few days ago?"

Then, in an oblique crack at Cleveland fans who have been down on Rosen, he said:

"But it seems Al only looks good on the road."

Wynn held Mickey Mantle to one hit, a double, and there was no special shift for him.

"And I don't intend to have one," commented Lopez.

"Anyhow, I don't think Mantle is going to break Babe Ruth's 60-home run record. For that matter I don't even think Mickey is going to keep up that .400 clip."

"Mantle's strength is to left and center and most of his homers have been mighty clouts. He has to play 77 games in the Yankees Stadium where you have to be able to pull to get a homer.

"So all Mantle — and for that matter, Yogi Berra—must do is level off. Then watch us. The Yanks' pitching isn't good enough to hold us."

Rosen, Chico Bat In

Rosen and Chicago Carrasquel each batted in three runs, and the Tribe collected a total of 12 hits off the Yankees as the largest crowd in the majors this season, 50,812, watched.

It was Wynn's first shutout of the year.

Rosen singled home a run in the first inning after two walks by loser Whitey Ford, and in the eighth he homered with one man on.

Carrasquel smashed a broken-bat single with the bases loaded for two runs in the fifth. In the second he was credited with an RBI when second baseman Jerry Coleman booted his grounder.

Shovel Squad Takes Lead in National Loop

Marion Power Shovel-OSCO assumed top spot in the National League in Little League warfare Friday night.

NATIONAL LEAGUE	W	L
MPS-OSCO	5	1
Vance's	4	2
Wilhelm's	3	3
Hinton's	0	6

The MPS-OSCO nine blanked Vance's 3-0 for the loop lead. Both squads went into the battle tied for first. Wilhelm's sunk Hinton's 13-4 in the opener to even its record at 3-3.

Dick Merchant scattered three hits in shutting out Vance's previous co-leaders in the nightcap. He fanned nine and walked two.

William Flourney proved equally as tough for Vance's. He held the winners to three hits, struck out eight, walked six, and hit a batsman. Flourney was tagged for two runs in the third, one pair of walks and one in the fifth on a hit bastsman, walk and hit by John Leffler.

Don Wilson and Bobby Shackelford combined to hold Hinton's to five hits as Wilhelm's edged toward second place.

They fanned six, walked 11 and hit one batter. All four Hinton tallies came in the fourth when Wilhelm pitching gave up five of the walks, the hit batsman, and hit by Steve Harper.

A single tally in the first, three in the second, seven on seven hits in the fifth and two in the sixth constituted Wilhelm's scoring. The winners banged out a 19-hit attack to support Wilson and Shackelford's pitching.

Harper was on the hill for Hinton's and fanned five and walked two.

Earl Hill's four hits and three by Jack Waddell paced the Wilhelm hitting attack. Jon Wilson, Ron Maynard, Tim Peacock, and Tiny Hill had two apiece. Bill Kauble collected two for Hinton's.

Sime Shooting For Marks in Pair of Events

SANGER, Calif. (AP) —The weatherman and his wind gauge share the spotlight with sprinter Dave Sime at the Central California Assn. AAU track and field meet tonight.

Predicted winds of 5 to 10 m.p.h. if blowing in the "wrong" direction, would nullify anything the great Duke runner might do in the 100 or 220 yard dashes. The wind also could trouble athletes in the longer races where at least one world record is threatened.

Sime feels he's ready for an outstanding performance. He worked out on the clay track at Sanger High School Friday and pronounced it "perfect."

Sime already this year has equalled the world mark of :09.3 for the 100 and broken Mel Patton's '220 record with a superb :20.1. He also has a :22.2 pending approval for the 220-yard low hurdles.

Tom Courtney of the 1st Army, with the best 800-meter time in the nation this year, will run eight yards farther in heading a 20-man half mile field that poses a distinct threat to Lon Spurrier's world mark of 1:47.5.

Burgess and Bailey Lead Redleg Home Run Assault

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Staff Writer

Birdie Tebbetts is playing "eenie, Meenie, Minie, Moe" with his catchers and he can't lose. One homers to put his Cincinnati Redlegs into the National League lead and the other belts one to keep them there.

It was Smoky Burgess who smacked one to beat Philadelphia and gain first place Thursday. And it was Ed Bailey who hammered a two-run shot to beat Brooklyn Friday night 6-4.

The Redlegs needed the victory. Pittsburgh's Pirates stayed right on their heels, beating St. Louis 2-0 in 11 innings as Bob Friend became the first 10-game winner in the majors this season by out-dueling Murry Dickson.

Giants Clip Braves

The Cardinals gave up second to the Bucs, but fell no farther than third in the tight NL race as the New York Giants trimmed fourth-place Milwaukee 7-2. It was the seventh loss in nine games for the Braves.

In the American, Early Wynn's five-hitter checked New York 9-0 as second place Cleveland cut the Yankees' lead to 3½ games. Detroit battered Washingtor 7-0, setting a home run record for Griffith Stadium, and Boston beat Chicago's White Sox 5-3. Baltimore defeated Kansas City 6-3.

The way Bailey and Burgess have produced for Tebbetts, you'd think the Redleg skipper would be trying to work them both into the lineup at the same time. But fact is, he doesn't really need 'em both. That batting order he sends to the plate is strictly a nightmare alley for opposing pitchers—poling a whomping 80 home runs in 46 games, tops in either league.

Cincinnati has walloped homers in 11 of the last 13 games—winning 10 of 'em in the surge to the top. Bailey and Burgess have combined for six home runs in that streak .Rookie Frank Robinson, who shares the team lead with Wally Post at 13, has hit five for one-man honors.

Klippstein Wins

Robinson homered in the first inning off Sandy Koufax Friday night but it was Bailey's No.7 that got the job done in the eighth off relief loser Clem Labine. Johnny Klippstein won his sixth with an eight-hitter—including homers by Rocky Nelson, just up from Montreal, Duke Snider and Roy Campanella, who hit his first since May 3.

Friend spun his second shutout over the NL's top hitting (for average) club with a six-hitter that packed nine strikeouts.

Willie Mays, getting his first since May 15, and Bill White hit homers for the Giants, who broke a three-game losing streak.

Billy Klaus' two-run double in the seventh beat Bob Keegan and the White Sox as Willard Nixon won his second on a six-hitter.

Billy Hoeft won his sixth, also with a six-hitter, for the Tigers, who had first inning homers by Wayne Belardi and Al Kaline.

Baltimore scored six runs in the first two innings, then sat back as Hec Brown relieved Erv Palica in the third and blanked the A's on two hits the rest of the way for his second victory.

Redlegs Claim Perfect Mark Over Dodgers

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs added fuel to the Queen City's pennant fever with their fifth straight win over the Brooklyn Dodgers Friday night, yet added only five slim percentage points to their lead in the tight National League race.

But the 6-4 Redleg victory kept intact the Reds' 1.000 record this season against the World Champion Brooklynites — one of the two teams manager Birdie Tebbetts says his team must beat.

"We must play Brooklyn .500 ball the rest of the year," Tebbetts said.

"We have 17 games left. If we split with them it means we will finish five games ahead of them for the year, since we have already taken the first five."

The other team that Birdie thinks important in the pennant chase is Milwaukee, a team that Tebbetts' men have had trouble with this year.

"We must play .500 ball the entire season with Milwaukee," the Redleg pilot said.

"Since we have only 15 games left, we must win nine of them, because of the seven played so far with Milwaukee, we have lost five."

Mac's, K&W Victorious in Softball Action

Mac's Trading Post maintained its perfect rating in Commercial League play and K & W Plumbers rebounded in action Friday night on the Garfield Park diamond.

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE	W	L
Mac's Trad. Post	4	0
K & W Plumbers	2	1
Carl's Auto Parts	1	2
Marion Merchants	1	2
Eagles	0	3

Mac's blanked Eagles 3-0 for its fourth straight loop victory and the K & W nine rebounded from a recent loss to Mac's by whipping Carl's Auto Parts 6-1.

Two first-inning tallies proved to be the winning markers as Bud Thorpe of K & W and the Eagles' Joe Erwin hooked up in a pitchers' battle. Both allowed only one hit.

A walk to Jim Riley, a hit by Fritz Walters and Eagle miscues accounted for the winners' first inning runs. The final run in the fourth resulted from a pair of walks and another Eagle error.

Bud England outpitched Carl's Sonny Jones as Mac's won on five hits.

England allowed the losers three hits and gave up their lone tally in the sixth. Mac's came up with a run in the first on a walk and the losers' errors, two in the fifth on a double by Baker and an error, and three in the sixth on hits by Harbolt, Jenkins and Bud England.

K. Reefsnyder collected two of Carl's three hits and Willie Jones the other.

Berg Moves Into Lead in Women's Play

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. (AP) — Mickey Wright, the slender 21-year-old star from San Diego went into today's fourth round of the 90-hole $12,000 Triangle Round Robin Golf Tourney with the second best 54-hole total. She had a 217 for three rounds.

Yet under the "plus and minus" scoring system of a player picking up or losing points by comparing her medal round with that of each of the other three in her foursome, Miss Wright was tied for seventh with plus 4 points.

Miss Wright, who tied the 6,965-yard Cavalier Yacht and Country Club Course record for the second time in three days Friday, trailed front-running Patty Berg by 26 points. She shot a 69, the same score she posted in Wednesday's opener. Miss Berg, from St. Andrews, Ill., moved ahead with a 74 giving her a total of plus 36 points. She had two previous 73s.

Marlene Bauer Hagge of Asheville, N. C., was second with plus 26. Joyce Ziske of Waterford, Wis., was third with plus 17 and Beverly Hanson of Apple Valley, Calif., fourth with plus 13.

Resigns as Dean

Leland A. Brown, who recently resigned as dean of Transylvania College at Lexington, Ky., is the son of Mrs. Alice K. Brown of 337 Pennsylvania Ave. A sister, Mrs. W. E. Reeley, resides at the same address and a brother, Boyd Brown, resides east of Marion. Mr. Brown is recovering from a heart attack suffered last year.

Littler Setting Tough Pace in Open Warmup

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. (AP) — Golf is strictly a business — and a pretty good one — for Gene Littler, a young man who conserves words as carefully as he does strokes.

Littler, who'll be 27 years old next month, turned pro a few months after winning the 1953 National Amateur Championship because he felt he couldn't afford to remain an amateur.

Currently, Gene is leading in the anything-can-happen Round Robin Tournament by a margin that would be a comfortable one in any other golf event. The Round Robin carries a $3,000 top price.

After rounds of 69-69-68 over the hilly, 6,527-yard, par 37-35—72 Wykagyl course, Littler calmly described his good and bad holes without further comment. The best was an eagle three at the 517-yard 16th hole of Friday's afternoon round.

As a result of those three steady rounds, Littler piled up 34 "plus" points in the unique round robin scoring. A player gets one plus for each stroke by which he beats other members of his foursome. He gets a minus point for each stroke by which he is beaten. The best score doesn't necessarily win, but right now the first three in scoring and points are the same.

Second in the 16-man field is Ted Kroll of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., with a 54-hole score of 208 and 16 plus points. Bob Rosburg of San Francisco is third with 210 and 15 points.

Mike Souchak, the first round leader, wound up tied for sixth. A morning 75 against three rivals who all broke par cost Mike 20 points. He came back with a 70 and lost one more.

Columbus Defeats League's Leaders

By The Associated Press

If the Miami Marlins had a couple of more pitchers like Don Cardwell, they'd be fighting for the International League lead instead of riding along in fifth place.

The Marlins won their 12th game in their last 16 Friday night, an 8-0 decision over the Buffalo Bisons behind the 20 - year - old Caldwell's three-hitter.

Although in the second division, the Marlins are only a game and a half behind third place Toronto, which whipped Richmond 10-3. The Columbus Jets polished off the league-leading Montreal Royals 3-2, and the Rochester Red Wings turned back the Havana Cubans 2-0 in other action.

Yesterday's STARS

Pitching: Bob Friend, Pirates—became first 10-game winner this season, giving six hits and striking out nine while running his string of consecutive scoreless innings against Cardinals to 20 in 11-inning, 2-0 victory.

Hitting: Chico Carrasquel and Al Rosen, Indians — each drove in three runs, Rosen with the help of a one-on homer, in 9-0 decision over Yankees.

He Stole To Purchase Tombstone for Mother

CLEVELAND (AP) — William Quarles, pleading guilty to stealing and forging a government check, said he wanted the money to buy a tombstone for his mother's grave.

Tears streamed down his face as Quarles, 33, told the court his mother died two years ago. Quarles said he stole a $160 tax refund check made out to James Oliver.

Federal Judge James C. Connell asked for a probation report before sentencing him.

Further Talks Slated By Steel Negotiators

NEW YORK (AP)—Further exploratory contract talks are scheduled for today between representatives of the steel industry's "Big Three" and the United Steelworkers of America.

After three days of meeting here Arthur J. Goldberg, the union's general counsel, said Friday: "We are trying to reach a meeting of minds."

The "Big Three," bellwether of the steel industry, are United States Steel, Bethlehem Steel and Republic Steel corporations.

The union, representing 650,000 workers in the basic steel industry, has presented its demands to the companies. Counter-proposals were not expected until next Wednesday.

After today's session the talks will adjourn until Monday.

Home Prices Will Remain Stable or Rise

Prices of quality existing homes will remain stable or rise in the majority of areas during the next six months, according to the National Assn. of Real Estate boards.

The forecast was based on information gathered from 229 real estate market areas in all parts of the United States included in the association's semiannual market survey, just completed by the Division of Research.

Rising construction costs and the diminishing supply of land served by water and sewage facilities — both essential elements in the price of new houses — are responsible for the keen consumer interest in the purchase of existing homes built since 1940, NAREB added.

Buy Existing House

In view of the well-known competitive character of the housing market, it seems clear that more and more home buyers are finding the existing house the best buy. The existing house is more than holding its own, and most realtors obviously expect that it will continue to do so, NAREB said.

The sustained interest of the public in used houses of modern construction, well-located and adequately-maintained, has steadied or increased their selling price during the past year. Moreover, 52 per cent of the returns expressed the view that current price levels will continue for all existing housing, while 14 per cent expect higher prices in the months just ahead.

Most in New England

Predictions of an increase in price of existing houses were most prevalent in the New England area where 33 per cent of the communities so forecast. In the Pacific Coast area, higher prices the reporters; in the East South Central, by 19 per cent ;and in the Middle Atlantic, by 18 per cent. Only the West South Central region expected no rise in prices, although 50 per cent of the replies indicated steady demand and price tags.

The current NAREB survey found prices to be the same or higher, compared with a year ago, for existing homes in the $20,000 or more category in 58 per cent of the nation's communities. A similar market position is reported for houses in the $12,000-$20,000 range in 70 per cent of the country. Units under $12,000 were found to be holding their own or gaining pricewise in 65 per cent of the areas.

More Can Afford Hardwood Walls

Hardwood walls have become popular in today's home decoration. In past years, it was more frequently the owner of the mansion, club or public building who could afford the cost of fine hardwoods and the cabinetmaker's bill for putting it up.

With the advent of the veneer plywoods, the fine surfaces are within reach of the owner of the cottage, who can and is installing it in living room, den and playroom. Veneers are now available in fur, gum, many mahoganies, walnut, birch and maple to name only a few.

Both material costs and installation costs are greatly reduced and in some cases the final cost of a plywood wall is only a little higher than the same wall done in plaster.

YOUR NOSE DOESN'T KNOW

When applying the new types of odorless paints, remember to have adequate ventilation. While the new paints are "easy-on-the-nose," they contain non-smellable ingredients that should be vented to the great outdoors.

Pretty as a picture! Awning sash provide ventilation.

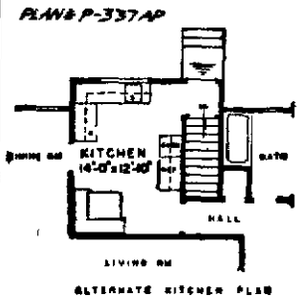
PLAN # P-337AP



A POPULAR SIZE, this house with three bedrooms and two bathrooms features an alternate plan for the kitchen and the cellar stairs. The house covers 1,420 square feet, exclusive of garage and porch, which figure at lower building rates. This is plan P-337AP by Samuel Paul, architect, 89-51 164th St., Jamaica 32, N.Y. Furniture diagrams indicate relative room sizes.

First Aid for Ailing House

Q: We are planning to remove our old linoleum which was laid by cementing felt paper to the floor, and the linoleum having been cemented to the paper. Professionals charge $10 an hour for this work and we would like to save this money. How can this be removed?

A: It should not be too difficult to remove the floorcovering. You should be able to pry up the linoleum with a wide-blade putty knife, and then pull up as much of it as possible. It usually separates at the felt. To removed the felt that sticks to the floor, wet it down with hot water. After a few minutes, the paste will soften for removal of both felt and paste. Another method is to scrape off as much of the felt as possible and then clean the floor with a floor sanding machine.

Q: What is your opinion of plastic coatings on linoleum? No kind of wax is suitable in this house.

A: I don't advise the use of shellac, varnish, lacquer or plastic on linoleum. It wears off in lines of heavy traffic and when additional coats are applied, a thick film will be built up where wear does not occur and eventually the floorcovering becomes discolored. The use of paint removers and other solvents may damage the surface. Continue waxing.

Q: Last summer we had a sectional garage erected on a concrete foundation. This was to replace a hunting camp which was burned early in the spring. We use the camp from March until December. As yet we have no ceiling or wallboard in the cabin. We have a coal-wood range which we used to try keeping warm, but in cold weather it was not possible. We also found that when we got the place warm the walls would drip water. Will this rot the wood? What can we do to prevent it?

A: To prevent possible rotting of the wood, coat it with a chemical wood preservative. Your lumber and hardware dealer should have it in stock. To avoid the formation of condensation on the walls and probably the underside of the roof, a ceiling of insulating wallboard should be constructed and the walls must be covered with the same material. It would also be wise to install some glass or rock wool or wood fiber insulation over the ceiling and in the walls. These materials come in blanket or batt form.

Q: I have some end tables with what is termed plastic tops. I discovered a long thin line on one of the tables and thought it was made by a lead pencil. When I attempted to erase same it still left the line plus the dulling effect of the eraser. I sponged it and used a furniture polish to try to restore the shine, but it is still dull. Would I dare use shellac? Have you any other remedy?

A: A pencil eraser has a very fine grit which dulls gloss, and since the gloss has been rubbed off, it will be impossible to restore it. Try using a paste floor wax on the scoured area; it may help.

SURFACE MUST BE CLEAN

If you're re-coating a surface that has been painted before, make sure that it's clean and free from grease and wax. In most rooms, all that's necessary is careful dusting to make sure the surface is clean. In a kitchen, however, there may be a film of grease on the walls and woodwork. This should be washed off with water containing a detergent. As paint will not adhere to wax, every speck of it must be removed. This can be done by wiping the waxed surface with turpentine.

June Is Busiest Time To Plant

The late spring season this year is no handicap to the enthusiastic home gardener. According to the American Assn. of Nurserymen, home planting and landscaping during the month of June this year is expected to reach the highest volume for that month ever experienced in the history of the industry.

Most home owners are simply extending their normal planting time from three to six weeks. Actually, says, the nursery association, the weather has little effect on trees and shrubs planted around the home. They will thrive just as well when planted in June as in April or May. They of course must be watered properly, with more watering later than if planted real early.

Many scientific advances have been made in the handling of nursery stock in recent years, which largely offsets advantages of planting one month or another. Planting by many nurseries occurs all through the summer months.

The practice of growing and selling plants in containers, adopted by many nurseries in recent years also overcomes former seasonal planting difficulties of weather. Such plants are easily transferred from the containers to the home property without disturbing their roots, or interrupting growth.

Hears Potters' Union

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP)—Edwin L Wheatley of Trenton, N. J, has been elected president of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters to serve the remainder of the term of Frank Hull of East Liverpool which ends Aug. 1, 1957. Hull resigned last March 9 because of failing eyesight and hearing. Wheatley has been first vice president of the union for 15 years.

DECORATING WALLBOARD

The increasingly popular dry-wall construction is not at all difficult to decorate attractively. The various types of wallboard are, however, very absorbent and need to be well sealed with a good coat of primer. Before applying the primer, fill the joints between the panels with spackling and cover with tape that is especially designed for the purpose. Also fill all nail-head holes with a spackling material and sand them even with the surface.

Some Novel Gimmicks For Homes Being Sold

By DAVID G. BAREUTHER
AP Real Estate Editor

New products for the home always draw crowds. Sometimes such products are not the first off the assembly line, but they are new to us until we have used them.

Electronic ovens, for example, demonstrated at the recent International Home Building Exposition in New York's new Coliseum, almost stole the show. We ate some apple pie baked in 14 minutes in one of these ovens and, man, it was pie. One manufacturer reminded us that he had such an oven on the market several months ago. Well, there are at least three different makes now.

The manufacturer who got in first, however, wanted us to straighten out the record about oven doors. We recently reported the complaint of a certain missus who wanted inventors to make a kitchen range with a lift-off oven door, so she could scrub out a grease - spattered oven without standing on her head. The gentleman said his firm has been making such detachable oven doors for several years.

So there you have it. What's new?

—:—

A LOT OF FUSS was made at the Coliseum over magentic self-closing refrigerator doors. These doors have no latches. They close by magnetism. They open as easily, or more so than a latched door. So they have a foot tredle in addition to a handle. When you have something in both hands to store in the refrigerator, you just step on the tredle and the door opens. It opens so easily that a child inside could push it open.

Although a few refrigerators were equipped with magnetic doors almost six years ago, the Korean trouble interrupted the use of the critical materials involved and it took a long time to get back into production.

WE GOT A HANDOUT — that is a description — of a new paint remover which makes paint soluble in water, so that it washes off the surface. Makers say it is safe for the hands.

You flow this remover on with a brush, let it stand 10 to 30 minutes, depending on the type of paint, test the softening with your finger, and when you can see the bare wood, wash it off with water. The stuff is supposed to pull stains out of wood without raising the grain, but keep it off plastics, linoleum and asphalt or rubber tile.

PRIMING IMPORTANT

When you're advised by the label on a paint can to apply a priming coat to wood or plaster before the finishing coat, be sure to do so. The primer seals the pores of a surface and prevents the uneven absorption of final coatings. As a prime coat provides a flat surface that is not-too-smooth, it serves as a good base for your finish coats, too. As there are several sorts of primers, your selection should depend on the job you are doing. Your dealer will help you choose the right type. In some cases — where primers come only in white, it's a good idea to mix in a little of the paint color you'll use for finishing. This will tint your base coat.

WHY CARRY IT?

MOTHER, DAUGHTER EARN DEGREES. Ready to don cap and gown at the Columbia University commencement exercises in New York are Mrs. Lilo Luxembourg (right) and her daughter, Mrs. Ilona Urbach. The mother majored in philosophy and the daughter in English literature at the Columbia School of General Studies. Both are foreign-born.

YOUR HOME . . . Today and Tomorrow

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

A good paint remover is one of the greatest time and labor savers ever invented to aid the home mechanic. Hours of sandpapering and scraping are avoided and, in most cases, a smoother job is accomplished. In spite of this, great care must be exercised when using paint and varnish remover, because the same properties which enable the remover to dissolve and soften paint, also soften the wood beneath to a great extent. This means that when the scraper or putty-knife is brought into use to scrape off the softened paint, the tool is being used on a soft surface which is most painfully easy to gouge. Once a sharp corner of the putty knife scrapes a long depression in a surface, it is difficult if not impossible to remedy.

Practically all authorities recommend the use of a rather dull putty knife for removing the dissolved paint or varnish from a surface. The wash of turpentine or alcohol which should always follow the use of a remover will take care of the light scum which may be left. It is also generally recommended that the putty knife be held at a slight angle from the surface being scraped off, as this position lessens the chances of an edge or corner gouging the surface.

Probably one of the chief reasons that homeowners complain about a paint remover being ineffective is that they do not read the directions carefully enough. Invariably the directions will tell how to apply the remover, how long to wait before trying to remove the paint, and when you can tell if a second application is necessary. The few minutes it takes to read the directions thoroughly will pay dividends in an easy and thorough piece of work.

Care to Floors

Tips on Home Repairs

By ANDREW C. LANG
Associated Press Staff Writer

DO . . . keep floors waxed for better protection of resilient tiles and linoleum and the various finishes on wooden floors.

DO . . . smooth a roughened spot on asphalt tile by rubbing with fine steel wool.

DO . . . remove a white spot from a shellacked wooden floor by rubbing with a cloth moistened in denatured alcohol and then, if necessary, applynig a thinned coat of new shellac.

DO . . . stop concrete floors from dusting by applying water glass or one of the ready-mixed preparations made for this purpose.

DO . . . when replacing a damaged resilient tile, be certain that all old cement is scraped up before applying new.

—:—

DON'T . . . apply any kind of new finish to a floor from which all old wax has not been thoroughly removed.

DON'T . . . allow spilled liquids, grease, etc., to remain on floors of any type.

DON'T . . . use any solvent to remove grease from asphalt tile, as the solvent will have a deterlorating effect on the tile.

DON'T . . . try to sand a floor with a hand sander unless you want a long, arduous job; rent a machine sander.

Two Women Killed

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two Berea women were killed Friday night in a two-car collision at the entrance to Cleveland Hopkins Airport. They were Mrs. Emma Behnke, 63, and Mrs. Mary Engel, 64.

Extended Roof Can Add Room To Your House

Add a room by adding a roof — or better yet, just by extending the main roof line you can have bonus outdoor living space at very low cost.

Not only does the overhang roof at the end of the house furnish protection for a lounge or play spot, but puts a finishing touch to the looks of the house.

If children's rooms are at the end of the house, let them have their own private outdoor playroom right off their bedrooms where they can be outside even during rainy weather Here they can be protected overhead and keep their feet dry on a raised slab of concrete for a floor, or an inexpensive and rugged Douglas fir deck

A roof extension over large areas of glass protects windows from rain spots or from too much sun glare inside the house, too.

If your house is sided with one of the attractive, site-blending patterns of Douglas fir, your roof overhang should also be of fir, and may be either a gable design or flat. The beams of fir under the roof may be an extension from indoors, usually rough and beautifully long lasting if hand oiled. The extra elbow grease is worth it.

A butterfly roof is also particularly well adapted to an extension type of dramatic sweeping roof structure, beams are usually eliminated and a ceiling of golden toned fir, finished with clear varnish lends an elegant topping to any living area.

Wood, nature's own material, is chosen more and more for home exteriors for its ability to blend with almost any site, as well as with surrounding residences. Available in many siding patterns to make outdoor living rooms as artistic and charming as the indoor living room, wood also has a ruggedness that withstands contact with the elements.
